

The Trinity Triangle 2015-2016

"The Sermon on the Mount ~ Bee-attitudes"

Matthew 5:1-11

September 16, 2015

In honor of a year of learning the BEE-Attitudes we are changing the Trinity Triangle TO BRIGHT YELLOW & (of course) black print. Learn the Beatitudes and learn to look for the BRIGHT YELLOW paper every Wednesday!!!

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." Matthew 5:3

To be poor in spirit is to recognize your utter spiritual bankruptcy before God. It is understanding that you have absolutely nothing of worth to offer God. Being poor in spirit is admitting that, because of your sin, you are completely destitute spiritually and can do nothing to deliver yourself from your dire situation. Jesus is saying your spiritual well-being is dependent solely on Him.

We praise God for his gift of redemption through His Son, our Lord, Jesus Christ!

How Can Parents Promote Good School Attendance?

Q: I know that attendance is important, and I want my child to do well this school year. How can I make sure he has good attendance?

A: Attendance definitely has an effect on your child's achievement. Research shows a link between being in school and doing well in school. If your child misses even one lesson—and doesn't get caught up quickly—he will likely fall behind. Clearly, if your child wakes up with a fever, he needs to stay home. But many kids miss school when they're not sick. Here are some of the top reasons for school absences—and how you can help your child avoid them:

- Doctor's appointments. Try to schedule such appointments after school, or during school vacations.
- Oversleeping. If your child is having trouble waking up in the morning, make his bedtime earlier. Sleep is important—but so is school.
- Disorganization. If your child is consistently late to school, help him prepare at night for the next day.
- School refusal. If your child keeps saying he doesn't want to go to school, talk to his teacher. See if there are issues you can resolve together. But make it clear that he will go to school every day—it's not optional.

WOZHAWA UPDATE!

We will not be setting up on Wednesday before church. The tents will not be set up until Thursday so we have to wait until they arrive. If you can help set up THURSDAY at school pickup time 3:30pm, it would be appreciated. It should take less than a half hour if we have everyone helping. Thanks for fitting it in your schedule. All food donations should be at the school now!

THANK YOU!
