SHOUT OUT! – Glade Run Christmas Gifts

A shout of thanksgiving for all who donated gifts for the children of Glade Run. We donated 50 Christmas gifts this year. Thanks also to Ron and Amy Boltz who delivered the gifts last week.

ST. LUKE’S CARD MINISTRY

And another shout of thanksgiving for the card ministry led by Judy Gundlach. Judy takes such time selecting cards and preparing them for every member of the congregation to sign.

Thank you to David Kurkowski for his beautiful clarinet music these past few months. David has been collaborating with Ellen to play at the 8:15 services about once a month and this past week came to play the prelude to the 10:45 service. Thanks for sharing your gifts with St. Luke’s!

Thanks for all who brought the beautiful and delicious cookies to the Cookie Box Drop. Thanks to Liz Gordon for organizing and packing the 20+ boxes. The carolers delivered the boxes this past Sunday.

Ruby’s Helpers

We still need volunteers to help Ruby in the Nursery each week for the 10:45 service. One other person is needed to be a helper. If you would like to be in a rotation of helpers, please call or email the church office.

Meet Ruby Shearer!

Stop by the Little Lambs Nursery and meet St. Luke’s new child care provider Ruby Shearer!

Each Sunday during the 9:30 and 10:45 worship services, children and parents will see Ruby, an 18-year-old senior at Knoch High School. Ruby assumed the nursery duties on November 15th.

Ruby is the daughter of Bobbie and Scott Shearer, and a granddaughter of Linda Heade. She has five siblings, Tara 25, Neil 22, Levi 20, Dori 14, and Sadi 11. Ruby has a history of providing child care services to family members and others in the community.

A very active senior, Ruby plays lacrosse and volleyball. She enjoys singing and is a soprano with the school’s Chamber Choir and Women’s Ensemble. She has participated in district, regional and honors choirs, as well as high school musicals.

Ruby is a familiar face around the St. Luke’s campus. She has participated in church youth outings, mission trips and other events. She attends St. Luke’s at Cabot on Saturday evenings. She was a student at St. Luke’s Cabot school before entering Knoch.

As others in her class, Ruby is applying to colleges for post-secondary education. She plans to pursue a music therapy degree to work with special needs children including those with autism. Ruby loves music and uses her voice to praise the Lord in song. Ruby also plays the piano by ear and played clarinet at St. Luke’s school. She is enjoying her senior moments during her last year of high school. Ruby said she enjoys helping people and working with children. She looks forward to meeting everybody and loves the new nursery.
