Prelude

Purpose - Rev. Scott Spencer, lead pastor, Mosaic UMC OKC

The purpose of Mosaic United Methodist Church is to welcome all to experience the radical love of God as together we create a beautiful community of justice, compassion, and faith. We are a widening circle of all nationalities, races, classes, ages, families, gender identities and expressions, sexual orientations, abilities, and faiths.

d Acknowledgement

Mosaic gladly welcomes all and acknowledges that the land on which we meet is, was, and always will be native land. This land was once inhabited by the Spiro peoples. We acknowledge those indigenous tribes to Oklahoma: the Wichitas, Caddos, Plains Apaches, and the Quapaws, as the original custodians of the land in this place. We respect those who came here as a result of the Trail of Tears: the Choctaw, Cherokee, Creek, Chickasaw and Seminole people. We grieve the violence done to native language, culture, and personhood. One of Mosaic's core values is reconciliation and we embrace the ongoing work of reconciliation among all God's creation.

Call to Worship - Rev. Jay Williams

Come, Holy Spirit, and rouse the people of God.
All the earth is groaning for restoration.

Though the whirlwind of life tosses and turns us, we remember:
out of chaos, the Spirit births new worlds.

Come, Holy Spirit, and revive what has grown stale.
Let the troubled be comforted.

Let the apathetic be agitated.
Wash away all that suppresses, silences, and condemns.

Come, Spirit, come. We welcome your renewal among us.

SONG: “Gracious God, We Will Not Gather”

*Gracious God, we will not gather, side by side, this Pentecost.
How we long to be together, crowded close, beneath the cross!
Still we join our hearts with others, trusting in your love and grace.
We are here— your sons and daughters— praising you in every place.*

*In our houses and apartments, in the rooms where people stay, in the midst of this pandemic, God, we worship, sing and pray.
People from each land and nation, in each language that we use, grieve the need for separation, yet, united, share Good News.*

*As we’re distant from each other in the midst of so much fear, may your churches all remember: By your Spirit, you are here!
Long ago, the wind came blowing; flames of love and boldness spread.
Soon the church went out proclaiming: “Christ is risen from the dead!”*

*Peter preached what Joel had promised: In the most uncertain times, you give dreams and visions to us; you send great and wondrous signs!
By your Spirit, give us courage! May your Church unite to be bearers of your Good News message to your world community.*
