“I saw the Lord standing beside the altar, and
He said, ‘Strike the capitals until the thresholds
Shake, and shatter them on the heads of all the People; and those who are left of them I will kill
With the sword; not one of them shall flee away;
Not one of them shall escape.’”

Amos 9:1

“An end! The end has come upon the Four corners of the land. Now the end
Has come upon you, and I will send my
Anger against you; I will judge you
According to your ways, and I will repay

You for all your abominations ...then you
Will know that I am the Lord ...
The rod has blossomed, pride has budded.
Violence has risen up into a rod of wickedness;
None of them shall remain, none of their
Multitude, none of them ... for the vision
Concerns the whole multitude, and it shall not Turn back; no one will strengthen himself who Lives in iniquity ... they will throw their silver
Into the streets, and their gold will be like refuse;
Their silver and their gold will not be able to Deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD...
As for the beauty of his ornaments, He set in Majesty; but they made from it the images of their Abominations—their detestable things...I will give it
As plunder into the hands of strangers, and to the Wicked of the earth as spoil; and they shall defile it.
And they shall know that I am the Lord!”

Ezekiel 7-9

I began playing chess when I was only 4 and by the time I was 6 I could beat my dad. Although the queen is the most powerful piece in chess, probably no piece is as feared as the knight. The knight is the only piece on the board that has the ability to jump over other pieces. And even though the rook is considered more valuable (5 points) than the knights most grandmasters of chess know that when the knights start to come in for an attack the game is usually over.

The game of chess is probably the most difficult game in the world to play at a high level (an elo>2500); it is a game of strategy and there are many millions of combinations of moves in every game; all GMs (grandmasters) know the various chess openings but more often than not the player who wins will be the one who can “see” the progression of the game many moves ahead.

I shared in Revelations from God, Vol. 1, a vision that the Lord gave me when Evie and I ministered in the country of South Africa back in 1997, I titled it Vision of the Chessboard. In the vision, I was taken far above the earth and as I looked down I saw the earth clearly and the blue of the oceans and skies was magnificent. As I was looking at the earth a giant crystal clear chess board began to form over the top of the earth and I noticed two players were seated playing a game of chess. The Holy Spirit was playing the white pieces and Satan was playing the black pieces. The game was about 30-35 moves old (a normal chess game lasts about 40 moves depending on the strength of the opponents). Both players were moving their pieces with lightning speed in the vision, something that you never see in a game where humans are playing, even if it's a GM against a weak player.

Now that vision, although in Dark Speech, is quite easy to interpret, isn't it? But now let's talk about the pieces that they were moving: there are pawns (8), bishops (2), knights (2), rooks (2), queen (1) and king (1). Which one are you? Well, none of us is the king, although there are many in ministry who think that they are because of pride. But there is only one king and that is Jesus. The queen, of course, would represent the Bride of Christ; the bishops represent the clergy.

Throughout history, there have been physical knights from the medieval days for hundreds of years. They were made famous by King Arthur's knights of the roundtable. Incidentally, there are those who believe that King Arthur's kingdom actually did exist in Wales.

Knights were men of character and honor—they swore allegiance to their king and were fierce fighters risking their lives on many occasions to protect the king and his kingdom. For over 30 years I've dreamt about having an order called "The Knights of Christ" in our ministry to reward those who have sacrificed so much to advance the Kingdom of God upon the earth.

We certainly need the Knights of Christ today more than ever to protect the Kingdom against evil and to destroy that which the enemy has erected—counterfeit churches.

When the Lord moved us from Texas to Montana back in the '90s and began to reveal this false church through many, many visions and dreams every single day I thought I was losing my mind after about 6 months. Nobody was preaching, talking or writing about this.

Then when the Lord moved us to Libby, Montana, in 2002 and had us establish a church I told Evelyn—because I just picked it up in the spirit—"This place is the Book of Judges." I meant by this that I had picked up in the spirit that the Christians, most of them, in Libby were in rebellion to God.

The Book of Judges, of course, deals with the history of Israel after the death of Joshua and the leaders while they are living in the Promised Land. We all know about the Judges, especially Samson with his special gift of supernatural strength. But the main theme of Judges, although you might not read this in any study Bible, is like Genesis and in fact most of the Bible—the rebellion of man against God. In Judges we find the theme of 4 R's:

- 1. Rebellion—people rebel against God's plans, laws and purposes. Like Satan, they want to be their own god. This is the history of mankind and we really see it becoming prevalent in our day. It is a fulfillment of Psalms 2.

- 2. Retribution—God does not change. Yes, He is love. And yes, He is merciful. But mercy demands judgment because judgment is justice and the blood of the innocent cries out for justice.
- 3. Repentance—the purpose of judgment is to bring about repentance so that God does not have to destroy everything. When we acknowledge our sin and rebellion and repent, then God moves to
- 4. Restoration

Remember, I've been to Heaven a number of times and stood in the counsel of God in the Throne Room and once in a conference room. Make no mistake! The Kingdom of God is not a democracy! It is a theocracy and the King rules. Yes, He is gentle, kind and loving but He does become angry, especially at rebellion. I've seen this spirit (of rebellion) and it is encased within a dark cloud that comes and stands over a person's head. The Lord hates rebellion; it is a grievous sin! When you examine it the root cause is pride—thinking that we're smarter than God.

So now we are living in the time Paul prophesied to Timothy:

“Now the Spirit expressly says that in latter times some will depart From the faith, giving heed to deceiving spirits and doctrines of demons, speaking lies in hypocrisy ...” 1 Timothy 4:1-2

“But know this, that in the last days perilous times will come: for Men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, unloving, Unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good, traitors, headstrong, haughty, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, having a form of godliness but denying its power.”

2 Timothy 3:1-5

So I ask the question: where are the Knights of Christ?

Last night I had another night (lol) vision about the church and this is what occurred: I saw a piece of 4” stainless steel threaded pipe like trucks use in the oil field to deliver crude oil or brine. The outside of the pipe, however, was extremely clean and polished like you would never see in the oil field. But I noticed that inside the clean pipe there was dirt and debris.

Now this piece of clean pipe represents the church that is supposed to be God’s delivery system to the world. We all know that the church is called to be righteous, free of sin, holy and clean. But although it may look that way on the outside just like Jesus spoke to the Pharisees, the perceived religious leaders of His time about “white washed tombs”, the inside is dirty and filled with debris—definitely not the delivery system the Lord Jesus died for nor one you can drink the clear, sweet water of the Word from. It is corrupt and must be destroyed.

Therefore, thus saith the Lord: “I will strike the capitals and the buildings will shake, crumble and fall. Destruction will be swift and it will be complete and many will stand in awe, and many will say, ‘This is the work of Satan’ but it is my work,” saith the Lord, “for I cannot abide and I will not allow a prostitute to converse with my people any longer. So ‘Come out of her, my people’ that you not share in her destruction. For I come as a swift avenger to destroy that which is not of me and that which pollutes not only my people but the whole world. And you shall see and those with the Eye of the Eagle will know that this is the work of the Spirit of the Lord. For the Rock will fall upon this false church and it will be crushed and destroyed and those that are in it will be destroyed with it.”

To continue with the night vision, I then felt somebody grab my right ankle and it woke me up. Nobody is here so I knew that it was an angel. So I began to pray about the vision and the church and I thought, in my prayer, “They” and the Lord inserted the words, “Sons of Anarchy” into the prayer. This has never happened to me before but obviously, I thought, the rebellion against the Holy Spirit is rampant now. People cannot hear the clean pure water of the Word or be ministered to by the Holy Spirit in most churches.

Instead they hear “book reports” like you would hear at a library meeting or opinions by minions and/or “doctrines of devils” as Paul prophesied and is also recorded of Judah in Ezekiel 7-9. The world laughs at the stupidity of Christians who obey the commands from the Balaam boys to “sow a seed” so that you can be rich but God has had enough. The time has come. For 3 ½ years in Montana the Lord had Ev and I preach a number of different messages with the theme from Revelation 18:4, “Come out of her, my people.”

On July 22 the Lord began to speak an oracle to me from Ezekiel regarding the destruction of America. I wasn’t expecting it. I’ve been fasting and praying for Him to speak to me about a Word He gave to woman in South Africa over a year’s time regarding His soon return and judgment upon the earth. I thought that the Lord was going to speak to me about that but He simply said, “Sit down, turn to Ezekiel and I will speak to you.”

Now in hindsight I find it quite interesting that this occurred in the seventh month—seven is God’s number of completion—on the 22nd day. As I noted in Revelations from God, the number “2” in prophecy means that it cannot be changed and that God is going to do it “swiftly.”

The oracle I wasn’t expecting today as I was writing this article has to do with the destruction of the church, however. Something Evie and I have known for some time was coming since we first had all the visions back in the ‘90s and continuing up until the present regarding this.

It's quite interesting to see that this particular scripture that the Lord gave me, Amos 9, is clearly speaking about the time now because it speaks about the "shaking of Israel" in the Day of the Lord and God says that He "will raise up the Tabernacle of David" which has not occurred yet.

Like Israel before us, the church has become "unclean"; the Lord will come as prophesied in Malachi as "the messenger of the covenant" to bring justice, cleanse the sanctuary, purify worship and claim those who are His. But the false prophets whose message today is no different than in the Old Testament—"peace, prosperity, wealth, riches, God loves you and is so pleased with all your sin!" have not prepared the church for the Lord's return. Remember, most prophets are false prophets today just like in the Old Testament.

So the King is sending in His knights, the genuine prophets and apostles who will "strike the capitals" with the Sword of the King—the Word—by prophesying against this Babylonian church system and destroying it. Then both the Church and the world "will know that I am the Lord."
