“AND THE WORD BECAME FLESH AND
DWELT AMONG US ... FULL OF GRACE AND TRUTH”

Ω JOHN 1:14

For the past few days I've been in prayer most of the night—it's always good and also so sweet to be in fellowship with the Lord Jesus. There is such peace, joy and beauty to be in His presence. And as He often does with me, He drops something into my spirit that He wants me to share with the Body of Christ. Sometimes He speaks through direct speech and words; sometimes He speaks through visions which are often in Dark Speech just like we see in the Bible. Most Christians have never been taught all of the different ways that the Lord communicates with us but it's in the Word and will be part of our teaching today. But before you continue on with this teaching, please read and meditate on the above Scripture about 7 times and let it sink down into your spirit so that it impacts your spirit.

If you've followed our teachings, read our books and listened to our messages then you will know that we rarely write or speak our own opinions—it's okay to do this, the Apostle Paul often did but unlike many ministers today he was careful to differentiate between what was "thus saith the Lord" and his own opinions. But as Eve wrote on our website, we work hard at being led by the Spirit and only writing or speaking things that we feel are from Him because that is really the only thing that matters and not my opinions or hers.

Now I'm not sure exactly what all this teaching will cover. Although I've never written anything—except in Revelations from God—about this particular subject matter the Lord did speak to me in dreams and visions about it back in the late '90s quite a bit and I recorded some of those in Revelations from God. This is a revelation that I've never heard anyone else write, teach or preach about and many might think that the "revelation" is blasphemous because most of the Church has a "once saved, eternal security" button and that's all they ever push. Everything's about salvation, which they really don't even understand. But, as I often say to people in churches or through emails or phone calls that ask a question of me: "What does the Word say?"

But brothers and sisters, if you got saved when you were a child like Eve did then if you attend a church all your life that only preaches salvation, then the Word will "never become flesh" in you as the Holy Spirit desires. Why? Because of something that I say all the time and I believe is one of the most important revelations found in the Word—both the Old and New Testaments. We see the pattern first in The Tabernacle of Moses—the importance of both the Word and the Spirit—the Bread and the Oil—the candlestick casting light on the showbread that what? Had to be fresh daily! The priests were instructed to always have fresh bread on the table—the table of Presence. Then also in the Holy Place of the tabernacle there was also the altar of incense which represents prayer. You should study the Tabernacle of both Moses and David and the Spirit will teach you a lot about what He is trying to do in your life and those of other members of the Body of Christ.

But Jesus spoke a very important truth in both Matthew 4:4 and Luke 4:4 that the Tabernacle patterns:

“Man does not live by bread alone but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.”

Now when you read the Word shouldn't you also meditate on what is being said? And shouldn't you take note of the circumstances of that Word? Who was it spoken to? What are the circumstances? Is there a spiritual gift in operation? Why was it said? What effect did it have? Was it a prophecy that is later fulfilled?

In this instance we know that Jesus spoke this in reply to Satan's temptations in the wilderness after His 40 day fast. What was Satan trying to do? He was trying to control Jesus wasn't he? It's interesting that Satan so often uses the spirit of fear to control people—especially those that aren't in God's family—and he rules his Dark Kingdom through fear and intimidation, yet he himself is very afraid! He was deathly afraid of Jesus and he's afraid of you too, especially if you know and understand how to engage him in spiritual warfare through the spiritual weapons that the Holy Ghost has given you. That's one of the main reasons he has fought CCI for decades because he doesn't want the Church taught anything about spiritual warfare.

Likewise, he doesn't want the Church to know anything about the “Word becoming flesh” either because that would be his worst nightmare—having to deal with millions of Jesus' on the earth at once. That is why he destroys most of the real churches that get any revelation because they represent a real threat to him. And those that he cannot destroy immediately he normally destroys slowly through the spirits of control. Listen, you might not be as strong as the opposing army but if you can control them then it doesn't really matter how strong they are or how good their weapons are does it? The spirits of control—of which the religious spirit is one—are found in almost all churches today and in the majority of churches they are in control, not the Holy Spirit.

But make no mistake, the Word is clear—God does not change. One of the duties of the Holy Spirit on the earth today is exactly the same as on the Day of Pentecost recorded in Acts. He came to earth as the rush of a mighty wind and the Greek word, pneuma, for spirit can also mean “wind” or “breath” (cf. Ezek. 37). He is here to do many things, e.g., “to convict the world of sin,” but in the Church—the Body of Christ—and that is why you will really need to study and meditate Ezekiel 37:1-10 to understand this teaching because it applies to the Church—one of the main tasks of the Holy Spirit is to conform you “to the image of Christ” (Romans 8:28, 1 Cor. 15:49, 2 Cor. 3:18, Col. 1:15, 1:27-28, 3:10-17).

So now let's consider the “image” of Christ Jesus. Remember the exchange principle—He became sin so that we could become “righteous” and “sons of God” (cf. 1 John) just as He was the First Son of God. Likewise, “the Word became flesh” so that the Word could become flesh in us. Remember John 12:24 and a main fact of harvest—that what is planted is what the crop will be—you cannot plant wheat and expect corn to come up, right? So too, as the Scriptures state His death and sacrifice would “bring many sons to glory” through the Word becoming flesh.

Now we see three things with Jesus that should help us understand this principle of “the word becoming flesh” so that we can work with the Holy Spirit—instead of resisting Him—and follow in the footsteps of Jesus so that the Word can become flesh in us and we can both reflect Jesus and also become “full of grace and truth”: 1) He spoke the Word,

2) He was a “doer of the Word”—the Word found action and expression through His life, and 3) He “was the Word.”

In us, when we are born-again by the Holy Spirit through repentance of sin and the entrance of the Holy Spirit then the Spirit is in us dwelling in our spirits. From this point forward He is seeking to transform (that Greek word is metamorphous and symbolized “change” like that of a caterpillar to a butterfly) our three-fold nature of spirit, soul and body into the image of Jesus Christ so that we look like Him and reflect His glory to a sin-sick, crying, dying world.

So when a person accepts Jesus and becomes born again, the Spirit will bring a desire for the Bread of Life—the Scriptures—to be read and meditated on daily so that the Word can become flesh because there is the temptation for the flesh and soul to continue on sinning in the ways of “the old man” as Paul describes it in his many writings in the Scriptures about this epic battle between the spirit (Spirit) and the flesh and soul of the Christian.

As your spirit grows from its food and nourishment (the Word) you become more like Jesus. As I wrote in Mysterious Secrets of the Dark Kingdom, spiritual things are like physical things. Your physical body requires physical food and your spiritual body requires spiritual food—the Bread of Life. Spirit growth too is so much like physical growth. When you are born again you’re like the fetus. But as you feed on the Word of God the “Word begins to become flesh” and just as a human fetus begins to take on the form of a human being so your spiritual body begins to more resemble Jesus. Then as you continue in the Word your physical body and emotions too begin to resemble those of Jesus—the Spirit of God is reproducing “Christ in you, the hope of glory.”

In the summer of 1997 we were living in Helena, Montana, and the Holy Spirit gently awakened me one morning and spoke to me. I recorded this in the book The High Calling of God because it has to do with ministry and the Five-fold offices that Ephesians 4 discusses as the Mantle of Jesus Christ to the Church—Jesus’ ministry to the Church. The Holy Spirit gently spoke into my spirit: “The world is waiting for a true demonstration of the gospel.”

You see, most of the world has “heard” the gospel BUT they have never “seen” the gospel—there’s a big difference. And if you study the Apostle Paul’s definition of the Gospel, some of which I wrote about a few weeks back, you will find that most of the “gospels” being preached today are false.

So then how is the world going to “see” a true demonstration of the gospel of Jesus Christ? There is only one way—for the Bride to “make herself ready” and allow the Word to become flesh. Praise God! I pray that you will make the decision today to stop resisting the Holy Spirit and work with Him to develop the Fruit of the Spirit in your life, to increase the amount of time you spend reading and meditating the Word so that the Word can become flesh in you and you will be a “true demonstration” of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Remember, Jesus’ example: He was the Word; He spoke the Word; He did the Word. We should follow His example. Maranatha!
