NEWS & Notes

Summer is almost over! School is about to start, the leaves have started changing colors (at least in my yard!), and the nights are getting cooler. All that means the committee meetings will be resuming on Tuesday, September 4th with SPPRC at 6:30. (And the office will be open both Tuesdays and Thursday from 12-3.) Keep your eyes on your mailboxes for your reminder cards!

Attention Laity: There will be a meeting for Laity Sunday on Thursday, Sept. 6th at 7 pm. Anyone interested in being a part of Laity Sunday, October 21st is encouraged to attend. This is not necessarily about the Lay Servants, Laity Sunday is for anyone who would like to participate and make that Sunday Special. Please let Chris Kimball-Peterson, clkp329@aol.com or 387-5486, know if you are interested. Why wait to get asked?

Between the Lakes Flood Relief. Thank you, everyone! Last Sunday we collected several bags of cleaning supplies, bleach, vinegar, peroxide, extension cords, masks, safety glasses, first aid kits, rubber gloves, and the heaviest box of trash bags that I've ever lifted! We were also able to give $255 as a monetary donation. The week before, Pat Love collected $306 from the congregation for cleaning supplies; and others have made their own personal donations. UMCOR and Samaritan's Purse have been on the scene, plus countless other organizations. The Valois-Logan-Hector and Lodi volunteer fire companies are working tirelessly. It takes a village, and our prayers continue for the folks who are working to rebuild their homes, cottages, docks, beaches, roads, vehicles, campers, lawns, gardens, and more. You can keep up with their current needs via Facebook; search for Between the Lakes Flood Relief 2018. - Carol G.

The concert is open to everyone; it's a free night of fun and entertainment. For further information contact: Alice Humerez at 272-2970.

Choir will resume rehearsals Wednesday, September 19th. Please speak to Francine or Jack if you'd like to be a new member, or just show up at 7 PM with your bottle of water and singing voice ready to go!
