A NOTE FROM YOUR PASTOR

Hello Saints! I pray that you are doing well and that you are practicing safe habits to protect yourselves. I hope that you had a blessed Easter Sunday even though we know this year was one that will be memorable to say the least.

This newsletter is here to offer encouragement, find ways to plug into our church family, and find updates on what is happening in our churches.

I have been providing daily posts regarding Pastor John Esposito. Pastor John had been a member of BUMC for over 25 years. He served as an associate pastor with me and then was able to become the pastor at the Gaylordsville UMC in New Milford CT.

Pastor Espo had been stricken with the COVID-19 virus and was in critical condition at Danbury Hospital. Just when it seemed that hope was fading, God stepped in! In a matter of days, pastor went from surviving on a ventilator, to breathing on his own, to being placed in his own room! Praise God!

Pastor Espo will soon be transferred to a rehab facility where he will work on getting stronger and working on getting back to himself. Please keep pastor, his wife Tammy, and two sons John and Joe in your prayers as they adjust to the recovery road that lies ahead of them.

Please keep connected to your church family. I'm trying to be in contact in some manner with everyone but if you could reach out to each other and do check in's, that would be very helpful to me and to the folks you are contacting. Especially those who live alone and have no means to connect with anyone.

As we have seen, COVID-19 cases continue to rise here in Connecticut and New York. Our Bishop has closed the churches through April 30. It could be longer unless we see some dramatic turnaround with the pandemic.

Now that I seem to have the video and sound worked out, I will be doing a Sunday service at 10:00 am every week. A link will be provided by email, on the BUMC website, and on both BUMC and Long Ridge Facebook pages. These Sunday services will include a message, and Holy Communion. Details on communion liturgy are on page 3.

I have been providing a mini series entitled, COVID 10, Our Faithful Approach. This will continue but will only be once a week since we are now joining together on Sunday mornings. These videos will be available on Wednesdays.

I will also continue to do my weekly podcast entitled, Expect, Believe & Trust. Again, links will be sent out on all of these weekly. The most current links to all of the messages and services are on page 2 of this newsletter.

Many have been asking about their giving for the church. We have set up online giving for BUMC. There is a link with specific instructions of how you can sign up and create your own safe personal account. Just got to the BUMC website and find the link. We are working in a link for Long Ridge.

Please note, giving can still be mailed into your perspective church as we are still making deposits and paying expenses.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Read bold print in response

Please have ready at your home any bread, cracker or the like and some sort of juice. If you do not have grape juice that is fine, even water will be a accepted replacement.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing,
always and everywhere to give thanks to you,
Father Almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

You formed us in your image and breathed into us the breath of life.

When we turned away, and our love failed, your love remained steadfast. You delivered us from captivity, made covenant to be our sovereign God, and spoke to us through the prophets.

And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Holy are you, and blessed is your Son Jesus Christ.

Your Spirit anointed him to preach good news to the poor, to proclaim release to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, and to announce that the time had come when you would save your people.

He healed the sick, fed the hungry, and ate with sinners.
By the baptism of his suffering, death, and resurrection you gave birth to your Church, delivered us from slavery to sin and death, and made with us a new covenant by water and the Spirit.

When the Lord Jesus ascended, he promised to be with us always, in the power of your Word and Holy Spirit.

On the night in which he gave himself up for us, he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

When the supper was over, he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and cup. Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood.

By your Spirit make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes in final victory and we feast at his heavenly banquet.

Through your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy Church, all honor and glory is yours, almighty Father, now and forever. Amen.

Let us now join in prayer that Jesus taught His Disciples

Our Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, The power, and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.
