Summer is here, God is now on vacation!

No, that can't be true. Even as I type these words for this article I'm looking up to the heavens expecting mini lightning bolts to come and zap my computer! However, I have notice that many often tend to take church off during the summer.

I'm pretty sure in all of my days of attending church, the pastors at the end of spring did not preach a message entitled "See you in September!" No, that was a song from the group "The Happenings" list, or add someone, please contact Audrey Stejskal at arstejskal@aol.com

Nursery Care: The nursery (for ages 3 and under) is located in the Education wing just before the bathrooms on the right!

Vacation Bible School	7/31-8/4
Blood Drive	10/12

back in 1966. If you were born before 1965 you might remember it...."Bye-bye, so long, farewell, Bye-bye, so long, see you in September."

But yet it seems when the Memorial Day holiday is over, sometimes folks get this notion in their heads that the pastor is giving everyone a pass for the next few months, see you in September! The days are brighter and longer, the weather is warmer, so God must be on vacation too.

News flash...He is NOT, and neither should we. Our beautiful church has been in what I would call a good ole fashioned revival. We have seen an incredible jump in our attendance. Our finances are probably the best they have been in years. Our fellowship time has the feel of a family holiday every week. Why in the world would we want to miss any of this or put it at risk?

What about our faith? Do we schedule it to take the summer off as well? Do we check out of church in early June vowing to return once school starts again in the fall? I think the more pointed question is this: do we put God on the shelf for three months, and yet expect his blessings all 365 days of the year?

Now I understand many of us will be traveling and taking vacations, me included! But last time I checked most folks in our church are not retired or independently wealthy, me included! In reality very few of us get to be on vacation for three months of summer. I encourage you to of course enjoy your travels, but please don't take the entire summer off from worship.

Thankfully, God does not take the summer off. He continues to bless us with family, friends, health, a job, food on the table, and in countless other ways all year long. God created the beauty of the beach and mountains that we so much enjoy during the summer.

A relationship with God is a two-way street. Don't let it slip into a one-way deal, enjoying the beauty of God's creation while ignoring the creator.

Here is my final "hook" for you to consider: we will have air conditioning in the sanctuary this summer! Yup, that's right! Cool, beautiful air will be flowing and so will the Holy Spirit each Sunday! Let's not stop the wonderful momentum we have here at BUMC. I'm happy to see you in September, but also June, July, and August as well! - In Christ, Rev. John Parille-Senior Pastor

The Wellmore Agency has asked us to help with a new Covenant to Care Family in Danbury. The mother has tried to support the family since the father had a stroke. They have a diminished income as well as large amounts of medical bills and they are getting farther and farther behind. The social worker has asked for help with food:tuna. peanut butter, pasta, sauce, red kidney beans, Canilla white rice,mac & cheese, apple juice, canned fruits, cereal, etc. Because the father has ongoing medical issues he needs to keep seeing doctors in New Haven. Gas gift cards would be a great help. The little girl needs diapers but can only use the Pampers Sensitive brand [size 4.]Paper products and toiletry items would also be appreciated.THANK YOU!
