WOODBURY CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL

Friday, December 2nd & Saturday, December 3rd 2016

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 2, 2016

HOLIDAY ON MAIN STREET
The season will begin to glow through the efforts of the Woodbury Business Association and town residents as they present a bright and festive touch with coordinated lighting along Main Street. Admire the holiday greenery, created by the Pomperaug Valley Garden Club, adorning the town buildings.

GLEBE HOUSE MUSEUM - GERTRUDE JEKYLL GARDEN (5:30 PM - 8:00 PM)
Kick off the holiday season with friends and good cheer at The Glebe House Museum's Gala Party. Be the first to see the beautifully appointed rooms in this 1740’s historic house decked out for the holidays and have the opportunity to purchase tasteful ornaments for your home. Guests will have a wonderful opportunity to wrap up holiday shopping at the silent auction, presented in the cottage annex. Wine and scrumptious appetizers will be served by candlelight. Tickets are $25 per person and may be purchased in advance by calling 203-263-2855.

WOODBURY VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT CHRISTMAS BAZAAR
(6:00 PM - 9:00 PM)
(9:00 AM - 3:00 PM) SATURDAY
The Fire Department on Quassuk Road is opening its doors to shoppers on this very special day to browse the wares of vendors specially selected for your holiday gift giving. Come visit and finish your Christmas shopping. Gift wrapping on site, too!

CHRISTMAS CONCERT (7:00 PM)
NORTH CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH SANCTUARY
For the opening of the Woodbury Christmas Festival, a special a cappella musical collaboration is offered from the Valley Chordsmen and Femina Melodia choirs. The Chordsmen, directed by Reuben Barnes, have been entertaining the Waterbury area since 1947, singing old and new songs in the barbershop style. Femina Melodia, founded by director Jan Gregory, is a chorus of talented women who have been offering a concert of varied repertoire for 15 years.
WOODBURY LIBRARY
FRIDAY, SATURDAY, SUNDAY
While you’re strolling through Woodbury, don’t forget to purchase a WOW TOKEN at the library. Tokens can be used for discounts at many Woodbury businesses and make lovely gifts. Support shop local all year long!

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 3, 2016

Children may drop off their letters to Santa. All letters will be answered. Cookies and refreshments will be offered.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
(9:30 AM – 2:00 PM)
Our annual Christmas Fair offers shoppers an array of Christmas greenery, handmade gifts, a delicious cookie walk, vintage jewelry, great bargains at the new-to-you tables and treats for your pets and backyard birds. A raffle and Chinese Auction will be held.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
(10:00 AM – 3:00 PM)
(LUNCH 11:00 AM – 2:00 PM)
Start your holiday shopping at the United Methodist Church. Throughout the day, you will find craft vendors displaying their handiwork including gift baskets, handmade jewelry, knitted items, and more. Be sure to visit the Methodist Women’s bake sale. Our delicious lunch menu includes our famous homemade New England clam chowder, beef barley soup, and sandwiches. Finish off your lunch with a freshly made specialty dessert. We take care of the kids, too, with PB&J sandwiches, monster cookies, and a drink. Add in some cheerful Christmas music, and you have the perfect start to your holiday season.
ST. PAUL'S CHURCH
(10:00 AM - 3:00 PM)
St. Nicholas welcomes visitors to this very festive bazaar featuring a Treasure Chest of Christmas Gifts. The splendid Basket Raffle returns by popular demand. A gorgeous Christmas White Elephant department, lovely Christmas Crafts and delicious Baked Goods all offer something for everyone. For your relaxation, complimentary cookies, coffee, and cocoa! Christmas shopping at its most enjoyable.

ST. TERESA’S CHURCH
(11:00 AM - 2:00 PM) LUNCH
Come and spend time with the elves as they serve you a tasty lunch. There will be the famous Curtis House’s clam chowder and chicken noodle soups, as well as an assortment of sandwiches - tuna salad, ham, and good old PBJ. Cookies and brownies will be available for dessert. Come and enjoy the holiday. Santa will be making a visit too!

GLOBE HOUSE MUSEUM – GERTRUDE JEKYLL GARDEN
(10:00 AM - 3:00 PM)
Experience the life of a Woodbury family during the Revolutionary War as the Marshall family, who lived here, prepare for the holidays. The museum will be decorated with holiday trees, swags, and many unique, one-of-a-kind decorations that may be purchased. Costumed docents will guide visitors through the downstairs of the house as young docents make pomander balls and string apples to dry over the hearth. Admission is by donation.

($8 adults, $6 Seniors, Veterans, Children, $25 Family) There will be some unique Christmas crafts and raffle items.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 3, 2016

FLANDERS ARTISAN MARKETPLACE
(11:00 AM – 4:00 PM – Sunday, too)
Decked out in festive style, the historic Van Vleck House on the campus of Flanders Nature Center is the setting for their annual “Artisan Marketplace.” This is a “must stop” for Festival goers looking for one-of-a-kind distinctive gifts that will truly be appreciated by the special people on their shopping list! Visitors to the marketplace will find a wide variety of quality creations handmade by local crafters and artisans including quilts, wreaths and greens, jewelry, and pottery. Proceeds benefit local artisans and Flanders land conservation and educational programs.

WOODBURY PUBLIC LIBRARY
Children’s Department
(12:00 PM – 3:00 PM)
The Children’s Department invites you to drop in and meet Mrs. Claus and her elves for holiday fun and surprises. Children may take a festive picture with Mrs. Claus. Sponsored by the Woodbury Youth Volunteers.

HURD HOUSE MUSEUM
“STEP INTO THE PAST”
(12:00 PM – 4:00 PM)
Focus on Christmas of yesteryear. Docents in period costumes will provide tours of the Hurd House with its glowing open hearth fireplace. The house was built in 1680, and it is the oldest house on its original site in Litchfield County. Also, visit the District 2 one-room schoolhouse. Each location will provide a glimpse of our rich holiday heritage through period decorating.

WOODBURY PEWTER

NORTH CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
(1:30 PM - 4:30 PM)
Please join us for a holiday shopping event with unique gifts from around the world. All proceeds help support the church's mission projects. Handmade gift items include: Kenyan jewelry and wildlife carvings supporting the Nambale Magnet School, hand-woven silk scarves crafted by landmine victims of Laos and Cambodia, and wares from artisans of third world countries through SERRV. Home canning, Christmas cookies, and holiday floral arrangements are also for sale. While shopping, visit our sanctuary, enjoy free hot chocolate and homemade cookies and don't forget to say "Hi" to the talking Candy Cane.

TREE LIGHTING CEREMONY (4:00 PM)
NORTH GREEN
Santa will set the new town Christmas tree aglow. The middle and high school bands will entertain those awaiting Santa's arrival, and members of the high school chorus will lead the caroling.

As we celebrate the 32nd Annual Woodbury Christmas Festival, we take great pride in our coordinated presentation of community spirit. Since its inception in 1983, our local churches, civic, youth, school, and business groups have offered residents and visitors alike a wonderful variety of events and activities that capture the spirit of the season in our beautiful town. We invite you to join us in sharing that spirit.

Our Limited Edition pewter Christmas ornament will be available for sale Saturday, December 3rd at the WJWC Craft Fair from 9:30 AM - 3:30 PM at the Woodbury Middle School. We are proud to return the proceeds from the sale of these ornaments to the community. Past years' ornaments will be available at a reduced price at the Craft Fair or by calling Norma Heaven at 203-266-9228. Canfield Corner Pharmacy, Woodbury Pewter, and the Woodbury Town Clerk's Office will have a supply of the ornaments available beginning Saturday, December 3rd, and will continue to carry them throughout the holiday season.

The Woodbury Christmas Festival Committee wishes to extend our deepest thanks to Cynthia Gillette for the artwork and design of our ornament this year.

OFF STREET PARKING will be available in the parking lots behind the Public Library and the Mitchell and Middle Schools.
