GATHERING

OPENING PRAYER

We come to prepare for the worship today and for the holiest of weeks. We will journey through praise, with joy on our lips; we will travel through betrayal and death, cradling hope deep in our hearts.

Jesus leads us through this week, and we will follow, for he is the life we long for, he is the Word who sustains us.

We wave palm branches in anticipation, we lay our love before him, to cushion his walk. Setting aside all power, glory, and might, he comes: modeling humility and obedience for all of us. Hosanna! Hosanna!

Blessed is the One who brings us the kingdom of God. Amen.

PRAYING

UNISON PRAYER OF CONFESSION

You are on your way to Jerusalem, precious Lord. You are one your way to suffering and to death for the sake of our freedom and our salvation. Our hearts overflow into songs of praise. “Hosanna!”, we cry with the crowds.

Yet, you puzzle us: you puzzle us with your suffering love that is more powerful than our brokenness; you puzzle us with your freely chosen humility that brings blessings in our weary places; you puzzle us with your forgiveness that summons us beyond our hurt.

Liberating Saviour, you make us uncomfortable so that you can lead us into more life and deeper wonder; so that God can take who we are and break us open, and bless us and give us to the world.

Grant us grace to welcome this holy restlessness that we may live by the power of your Spirit, and in your name. Amen.

CLOSING PRAYER

O Christ, you entered the city as a poor man not in style but simply, yet still you caused uproar, and questions everywhere; you drew the expectations of a hungry crowd, and brought buried conflicts to the light.

May we, who are sometimes swayed by the crowd's approval, and who often avoid conflict for fear of its cost to us, hold fast to the gospel of peace and justice and follow faithfully in your way of compassion and solidarity with those who are poor and excluded, wherever it may lead us. Amen.
