NEXT SUNDAY MORNING

Each year I look forward to ROUND UP SUNDAY. It is a time that we all can dress Western. Ok I see the irony in that. However, it is a time of great fellowship. I will be preaching about the life and times of Elijah. We will have great music. And following the service we will have a BBQ meal that the men will be preparing. I got good news and bad news about the meal. The good news is that the church is providing the BBQ sandwiches. The bad news is that there will be no Moon Pies this year. I know that is heart breaking news to many of you. I hope it doesn't ruin the day. However, we will plow through and do our best to have a great day without Moon Pies. So let work even harder at having a great attendance. Round -Up your Sunday School class for a great day attendance. Round-Up friends and family to be with us. A great Round-Up Sunday will help us prepare for a significant and meaningful holiday season.

Blessings
