

PASTOR'S POSTS

Generosity is our theme this month and it has been a real blessing to prepare the messages for Sunday Mornings. I am so grateful to the people who have been generous to me over the years. Whenever I think about generosity, I always flash back to when I wanted to attend Oklahoma Baptist University. It was a big decision for my family. My dad had lost his business and worked for someone else. It wasn't the best of times for our family financially. So I wanted to go to an expensive, private school. The truth is my family didn't have the money for that. But that is not the end of the story. There was a lady who left OBU millions of dollars to help "preacher boys" go to college. She was Mrs. Louise Prichard of Oklahoma City. Her generous gift paid half of my tuition every semester. I never met her, I don't know much about her. But I cannot think about generosity without thinking about her. Plus, multiply this by the fact that back in my time, OBU was educating more ministerial students than anyone else! Since the days I walked on Bison Hill, they have rearranged a little and many students benefit from the scholarship. My daughter, Emily, received scholarship from the Prichard gift. Every time I stand before you and teach the Bible, a part of that is the generosity of a lady none of us have met. I suppose that will always be my favorite generosity story. Mrs. Prichard's impact on the kingdom of God can only be measured by the expanse of heaven. Yes, there are a lot of people in heaven I want to talk and visit with when I get up there. Mrs. Prichard is certainly one of them. I want to thank her. Eternity already has.

Do you have a favorite generosity story? I would love to hear it. Better yet, if you could write it out and give it to me for my files. I am building a great collection of stories about generosity. It has been such an encouragement.

You can help

The Roger Mills Circle of Care Food Pantry is under new management. The Food Pantry has transitioned from a "Care and Share Box Program" to a full Food Pantry as of July 1st. Distribution is the 2nd and 4th Thursdays of every month from 1:30-2:30 and 4-6pm. If you are aware of someone that needs help, please share this information. The food pantry is looking for volunteers to help during hand out times and unloading the food truck. Please call Tracey Byrum at 580-461-9610 with any questions, donations or to volunteer to help!
