September to Remember

September 2, Adoration Sunday: We are going to dedicate a WALL OF PRAISE. Our focus for this day will be praising the Lord for what He has done and for WHO He is. Begin now to think about how you can praise the Lord.

September 9, Intercession Sunday: We will turn our hearts towards the Lord in prayer as we seek to understand intercessory prayer. Also that day is grandparent day with a meal following services. We will also be offering training for our rapid response trailer. That evening we will gather in peoples homes to pray. The following Wednesday night we will have a special prayer service at church. It is a busy day, but an important one.

September 16, Confession Sunday: The sermon will be from 2 Chronicles 7:14. God never sends genuine revival until His people are right with Him.

September 23, Invitation Sunday: We need to always be inviting people to Sunday School and Worship. This special Sunday is the beginning of our Fall Crusade with George Marty Brock. We are inviting people to the crusade, but we are also praying for a tremendous moving of the Holy Spirit during the invitation time each service.

September 30, Celebration Sunday: We are going to conclude the month with a great day of celebration. We are praying for many to be baptized this day. We will celebrate what God has done and what He will do.

Fall Crusade Martyr Broek

The Lord separated the sea and the children of Israel walked through on dry land. The army of Pharaoh followed and the sea closed. I have been consumed with the idea that God gives us special moments of spiritual opportunities. Another illustration is Noah's ark. You might remember that the Lord closed the door and then the flood came. The opportunity to be saved from the flood ended. The Bible has seasons or rich opportunities of salvation and spiritual awakening. I have been praying and considering our church and what God is doing. We have been praying for salvation decisions. The Lord continues to bless. The point I want to make, however, is that those rich times of spiritual opportunities don't seem to last forever. God is always at work. But there are those special times. I am so grateful that I have had an opportunity to be a part of great movements of God in the past. But I long for a great movement of God in the now. I hope you understand and recognize God has blessed our church in recent years. We are so grateful for that. I know that we are a church that believes the Bible is God's Holy Word, are committed to prayer, faithful in support of missions, and steadfast in vibrant worship and fellowship. But everyone once in a while God blesses in spiritual ways in the extreme. That thought is on my mind and heart. It is nothing that we can manufacture or conjure. It is totally a God thing as we say. But we can prepare for it, pray for it, long for it and trust God for it. I am praying our SEPTEMBER TO REMEMBER will be a spiritual, heaven sent, and Holy Spirit drenched opportunity for us. Look past the calendared events. They are awesome, including the Crusade, but look beyond the calendar to see how God is at work. Blessings, Dennis
