Jubilate Psalms 100

Officiant & People pray together

Be joyful in the Lord, all you lands; *
serve the Lord with gladness
and come before his presence with a song.
Know this: The Lord himself is God; *
he himself has made us, and we are his;
we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving;
go into his courts with praise; *
give thanks to him and call upon his Name.

For the Lord is good;
his mercy is everlasting; *
and his faithfulness endures from age to age.

Psalm 88 (read together in unison)

- 1 O LORD, my God, my Savior, * by day and night I cry to you.
- 2 Let my prayer enter into your presence; * incline your ear to my lamentation.
- 3 For I am full of trouble; * my life is at the brink of the grave.
- 4 I am counted among those who go down to the Pit; * I have become like one who has no strength;
- 5 Lost among the dead, * like the slain who lie in the grave,
- 6 Whom you remember no more, * for they are cut off from your hand.
- 7 You have laid me in the depths of the Pit, * in dark places, and in the abyss.
- 8 Your anger weighs upon me heavily, * and all your great waves overwhelm me.
- 9 You have put my friends far from me; you have made me to be abhorred by them; * I am in prison and cannot get free.
- 10 My sight has failed me because of trouble; * LORD, I have called upon you daily; I have stretched out my hands to you.
- 11 Do you work wonders for the dead? * will those who have died stand up and give you thanks?
- 12 Will your loving-kindness be declared in the grave? * your faithfulness in the land of destruction?
- 13 Will your wonders be known in the dark? * or your righteousness in the country where all is forgotten?
- 14 But as for me, O LORD, I cry to you for help; * in the morning my prayer comes before you.
- 15 LORD, why have you rejected me? * why have you hidden your face from me?
- 16 Ever since my youth, I have been wretched and at the point of death; * I have borne your terrors with a troubled mind.
- 17 Your blazing anger has swept over me; * your terrors have destroyed me;
- 18 They surround me all day long like a flood; * they encompass me on every side.
- 19 My friend and my neighbor you have put away from me, * and darkness is my only companion.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Canticle G: A Song of Exekiel Ezekiel 36:24-28

(Read together in Unison)

I will take you from among all nations; *
and gather you from all lands to bring you home.
I will sprinkle clean water upon you; *
and purify you from false gods and uncleanness.
A new heart I will give you *
and a new spirit put within you.
I will take the stone heart from your chest *
and give you a heart of flesh.
I will help you walk in my laws *
and cherish my commandments and do them.
You shall be my people, *
and I will be your God.

Gospel Reading: Mark 10:32-45

Layreader: A reading from the Gospel of Mark.

Layreader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Canticle L: A Song of Christ's Humility Philippians 2:6-11 (EOW Vol. 1)

(read together in unison)

Though in the form of God, *
Christ Jesus did not cling to equality with God,
But emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, *
and was born in human likeness.
Being found in human form, he humbled himself *
and became obedient to death, even death on a cross.
Therefore, God has highly exalted him *
and given him the name above every name,
That at the name of Jesus, every knee shall bow, *
in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
And every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, *
to the glory of God the Father.

The Apostles' Creed

Officiant & People pray together

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers

Officiant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Officiant: Let us pray.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Collect Prayers

The Officiant then prays the following Collects.

A Collect for the human family

O God, you made us in your own image and redeemed us through Jesus your Son: Look with compassion on the whole human family; take away the arrogance and hatred which infect our hearts; break down the walls that separate us; unite us in bonds of love; and work through our struggle and confusion to accomplish your purposes on earth; that, in your good time, all nations and races may serve you in harmony around your heavenly throne; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Collect for the unity of the Church

O God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, our only Savior, the Prince of Peace: Give us grace seriously to lay to heart the great dangers we are in by our unhappy divisions; take away all hatred and prejudice, and whatever else may hinder us from godly union and concord; that, as there is but one Body and one Spirit, one hope of our calling, one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of us all, so we may be all of one heart and of one soul, united in one holy bond of truth and peace, of faith and charity, and may with one mind and one mouth glorify thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Silence may be kept, and free intercessions and thanksgiving may be offered, either silently or aloud.

General Thanksgivings

Officiant and people pray together

Accept, O Lord, our thanks and praise for all that you have done for us. We thank you for the splendor of the whole creation, for the beauty of this world, for the wonder of life, and for the mystery of love.

We thank you for the blessing of family and friends, and for the loving care which surrounds us on every side.

We thank you for setting us at tasks which demand our best efforts, and for leading us to accomplishments which satisfy and delight us.

We thank you also for those disappointments and failures that lead us to acknowledge our dependence on you alone.

Above all, we thank you for your Son Jesus Christ; for the truth of his Word and the example of his life; for his steadfast obedience, by which he overcame temptation; for his dying, through which he overcame death; and for his rising to life again, in which we are raised to the life of your kingdom.

Grant us the gift of your Spirit, that we may know Christ and make him known; and through him, at all times and in all places, may give thanks to you in all things. Amen.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

Officiant

Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen.

The Dismissal

Officiant: Let us bless the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Officiant: Glory to God whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine: Glory to him from generation to generation in the Church, and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen.
