A Note from the Pastor

(Repeated from Last Week)

My Brothers and Sisters,

There is an old saying to be very careful praying for patience, because God will send you something that requires it! As the summer is ending I am reminded of last year when I arrived and how much I have changed...becoming more patient!!!

I pray that your Summer is going well & that God gives you more gifts too!

Fr. Michael Slovak, SOLT

A Note from Sr. Maria Hostia

Dear friends,

In religious life we are called to live, love and serve where we are planted. I am grateful to have had the grace and honor to serve you these past seven years. Thank you for your love, friendship, and for sharing your faith and love for family. I will keep all of you in Our Lady's heart and in my prayers, especially during adoration. My next mission is Capulin, Colorado. Please keep us in your prayers.

Sr. Maria Hostia

Sunday Reading Insights

“Jesus silences the murmurs, ‘No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draw him.’ What does it mean to ‘listen to the Father’? It means being attentive to the needs and desires of our own humanity. If Elijah had not been brought to the point of starvation, he would not pray as he does today. What the doubters in the Gospel find so far-fetched—‘I am the living bread that came down from heaven’—is in fact exactly what they need in order to be drawn to the Father’s love. That is why ‘Christ loved us’ by handing Himself over for us ‘as a sacrificial offering.’”
