MESSAGE FROM REV. BRENT POMEROY

When we greet one another in church on the Sunday after Easter there are a few questions we typically ask. Out of courtesy we often ask people, "How was your Easter?" or "How did you spend your Easter weekend?" or we might simply say, "I hope you had a good Easter." While these casual exchanges are all well and good, I've been thinking this week about how we tend to speak of Easter as a one-time event; something that happened a long, long time ago rather than something that is still happening today. So maybe we could ask ourselves a slightly different question, not "how did we spend Easter" but "how are we spending Easter?"

I once heard a sermon where the minister talked about the importance of being Easter people. It was a call to live out the Easter story and keep it alive; a call to take the spirit of the living Christ with us and to share it with others. It was a call to be resurrected by God's amazing grace but also a call to join God in the work of resurrection. The pastor's message was that this was something we all can do. We can all be Easter people.

I agree. My prayer for us all is that we can live every day in the hope and promise Easter brings. For what God has done, God is still doing and for that, we can all be truly thankful. I'll see you in church.
