

Full-Time Preacher/Evangelist

The Madison Avenue Church of Christ in Pierre, South Dakota is currently seeking a full-time minister who enjoys teaching and preaching to both the young and old.

Pierre is the capital city of the freedom-loving state of South Dakota. Located in the heart of the Midwest, it is nestled along the Missouri River and is the hub of a thriving community of approximately 19,000 people. While providing a small town atmosphere that is welcoming and quiet, the area also offers a wide array of recreational, community and family activities.

Our congregation has recently experienced renewed growth and wishes to continue to develop its membership in order to better serve our families and our community...all the while spreading and teaching the word of God. The ideal candidate will be sound in his faith, willing to be involved in the community and outgoing with a positive impact on people. The main focus for this position will be pulpit preaching and classroom teaching with an eye towards evangelism and outreach. The church is well-established and offers a very competitive salary. Included in the compensation package is nice 4-bedroom home in a well-established and comfortable family neighborhood within minutes of the church.
