

DON'T MISS THE BOAT
GENESIS 5:28-29 / JAN. 15,2017 PM

I. NOAH'S LIFE.

- A. His name was special because he would be special.
1. Noah represents the tenth generation from Adam.
 2. He is the only person in this family line whose name was defined--Gen. 5:28-29.
- B. What will Noah provide comfort from?
1. God decided to destroy the world because of its wickedness--Gen. 6:5-7.
 2. Only one man's family would be spared, Noah's--Gen. 6:8.
- C. Why did Noah find favor with God?
1. He was righteous--6:9a
 2. He was blameless--6:9b
 3. He walked with God--6:9c.
- D. Noah is mentioned elsewhere in scripture.
1. In a few additional genealogical lists.
 2. Ezekiel 14:14 puts him in good company.
 3. Peter mentions him twice--1 Peter 3:20 and 2 Peter 2:5.
 4. The writer of Hebrews also mentions him as one of the heroes of faith--Heb. 11:7.

II. NOAH'S LESSONS

1. He knew God.
2. He obeyed God.
3. He cared about the spiritual lives of others.
4. He spent all his money on building the ark.
5. He spent all his time building the ark.
6. He knew about animals.
7. He was a good carpenter.
8. He was a good husband and father.
9. He must have neglected his house and garden.

10. He must have been strong .
11. He was a man of faith--Heb. 11:7.
12. He was saved by grace because he wasn't perfect.
13. He reminds us that God plans to save all who belong to Him.
14. He reminds us that God's judgment will inevitably come someday--Matt. 24:37-38.