

JEHOVAH-JIREH
PHILIPPIANS 4:19 / 10-21-18 / AM

I. FIRST, THERE IS THE PROVIDER OF THIS PROMISE.

- A. Paul says the provider is God.
- B. Paul personalized his reference to God by adding a single word, “my”.

II. SECOND, THERE IS THE PROMISE ITSELF.

- A. Paul says God’s promise is to supply all our needs—v. 19—“My God will meet all your needs...”
- B. How does God know what we need when sometimes we don’t even know what we need?—Matt. 6:8 and 6:32.

III. THIRD, THERE IS THE PLENTITUDE OF THIS PROMISE.

- A. Paul says God meets all our needs because He has resources beyond our wildest imagination
- B. Someone said it like this....
  - 1. There are the riches of God’s goodness that He makes available to everyone, like the sun shine and the rain.
  - 2. There are the riches of God’s grace that He makes available to everyone who receives His Son.
  - 3. There are the riches of God’s glory that He makes available to Christians.

IV. FOURTH, THERE IS THE PREREQUISITE OF THIS PROMISE.

- A. You will not find the prerequisite in verse 19, but it is in verse 18.
- B. Like all promises in Scripture, this one in Philippians 4:19 has a context.
