

THY KINGDOM COME
MARK 12:1-12 / FEB. 15, 2017 / WED

I. THE MEANING OF THE PARABLE.

- A. The man is God--12:1a
- B. The vineyard --12:1b
 - 1. Could be Israel--Isa. 5:7.
 - 2. Is the Kingdom of God according to Matthew--Matt. 21:43.
- C. The farmers are the Jewish religious leaders--12:1c.
- D. The servants were the Prophets--12:2-5.
- E. The Son is Jesus--12:6-8.

II. WHAT THIS PARABLE SAYS TO THE JEWISH RELIGIOUS LEADERS.

- A. The Jewish religious leaders will be judged--12:9.
- B. The Son will be vindicated--Mark 12:10-11.
- C. The reaction of the Jewish Religious Leaders--12:12.

III. WHAT DOES THIS PARABLE SAY TO US TODAY?

- A. First, there are blessings from being in the Kingdom of God.
- B. Second, there are responsibilities for being in the Kingdom of God.
- C. Third, there can be judgment in the Kingdom of God.