

LOVE IS MORE THAN A FEELING

In the Broadway play, My Fair Lady, Eliza is courted by a man named Freddy. Freddy writes her love letters every day. Eliza's response to all of his love letters was to cry out in frustration, "Words! Words! I'm so sick of words! Don't talk of stars burning above! If you're in love, show me! Don't talk of love lasting through time. Make no undying vow. If you love me, show me now!"

I just saw a beautiful definition of what love is when several of our church's ladies devoted all day preparing and serving a meal to a bereaved family on the day they buried someone they love. These ladies didn't really know the bereaved family, but they know Jesus and that's all that mattered. They didn't just say they love Jesus and others, they proved it by cooking, warming, serving, washing, drying and cleaning up after more than a hundred people. This is love, not just a feeling, but action.

I'm proud to be their pastor!
