

Week #44 September 15, 2021
Read Revelation 18

1. In chapter ___ John describes the fall of B_____. It is not the A_____ city of B_____, and not necessarily a C_____ of his time. What John is now describing is a S_____ that F_____, Satan's P_____ and E_____ S_____. John begins with the clue "A_____ these things I S_____" to tell us of a N____ S_____ in his vision. This change is from chapter ___ which described the D_____ of the H_____, Satan's R_____, S_____.
2. John's vision opens with an A_____ from H_____ with the purpose of M_____ an A_____ from God. This angel is S_____ B_____ with G_____. It brings L_____ and S_____ to the world that was steeped in D_____. The angel proclaimed that B_____ has F_____, F_____. F_____ is said T_____ to either E_____ it, or to emphasize the F_____ of the ___ of Satan's S_____.
3. The world had become under the I_____—I_____—with the S_____ of Babylon. This I_____ was over the P_____ with I_____ and P_____. The W_____ L_____ were influenced by C_____. I_____ A_____ with Babylon. The M_____ also had been influenced by Babylon, getting R_____ off the system.
4. John then hears God C_____ from heaven for His E_____—His C_____ O_____. Calling for R_____ for those that have not yet C_____ J_____—a call to F_____ from P_____ and P_____ in the S_____ of B_____. He tells them Babylon's sins are S_____ and will receive E_____ J_____.
5. The A_____ I_____ and C_____ for God's J_____. The angel asks God to give B_____ what she D_____—what she has D_____ O_____ upon God's P_____. The angel asks for D_____ P_____ B_____—no H_____ back of J_____—a C_____ of judgement to contrast to the C_____ of her A_____.
6. The sins of B_____ were P_____, P_____, L_____, S_____, and S_____-S_____. The angel asked for these things upon Babylon instead: S_____, M_____, T_____, P_____, P_____, and F_____. The final judgement on Babylon is by the S_____ G_____ and will result in B_____ being B_____ up.
7. Although the E_____ W_____ hears this A_____ by the angel, there is no R_____ shown.
