1 Corinthians 13

Vo	cabulary
	Tongues – languages
	Spiritual gifts – talents and abilities God gives us to serve the church
	Edify – build up
Ро	ints to Ponder
Qu	Why is love the greatest Christian quality of all? How can we use our spiritual gifts in ways that show the love of Jesus? estions
2	. What are "the tongues of men and of angels"?
2	2. Describe what Paul says about the person who has gifts, but has no love.
3	Give an example of love being patient with; a parent, spouse, friend, coworker, board member, neighbor.
2	Paul says love is kind. How can a husband show kindness to his wife long after the first blush of infatuation has passed?
ŗ	5. Paul says that love does not envy. Why do we sometimes envy other people?
(5. Love does not boast. What does 1 Corinthians 1:31 say we should boast about other than ourselves?
-	7. Love is not proud. In what ways were the Corinthians guilty of being too proud?
	What areas do we have to be careful about pride?
8	3. Love is not rude. What ways were the Corinthians being rude?
	Why are Christians sometimes rude?
g	D. Love is not self-seeking. How does a parent put the needs of their kids first?
	How do we put a spouse's needs first while not being neglectful of our own needs?_____

 can speak in tongues. 2. If I could give all I possess to the poor and surrender my body to the flames but act like a jerk to other people, I gain nothing. 3. Love is patient, except when you're waiting for something to come in the mail. 4. Love is kind. 5. Love is not rude, except when someone else is being rude to you. 6. Love always protects, always trusts, always hopes, and always perseveres. 	10.	Why is it unwise for us to keep a record of wrongs?
the truth? 12. Love always protects. How can Peace Church show protective love to its members? 13. Love always trusts. Who do we trust most? 14. Love always hopes. Who or what do we hope in the most? Isaiah 40:31 15. Love always perseveres. What are you persevering through now? 16. Love never fails. In what ways has God shown us unfailing love? 17. What are the things that Paul mentions that are not permanent? Why will we not need tongues and prophecies in the future? True/False 1. If I can speak in the tongues of men with angels but have not love, at least I can speak in tongues. 2. If I could give all I possess to the poor and surrender my body to the flames but act like a jerk to other people, I gain nothing. 3. Love is patient, except when you're waiting for something to come in the mail. 4. Love is kind. 5. Love is not rude, except when someone else is being rude to you. 6. Love always protects, always trusts, always hopes, and always perseveres.		·	tile members?	11.		y in
 Love always trusts. Who do we trust most? Love always hopes. Who or what do we hope in the most? Isaiah 40:31 Love always perseveres. What are you persevering through now? Love never fails. In what ways has God shown us unfailing love? What are the things that Paul mentions that are not permanent? Why will we not need tongues and prophecies in the future? If I can speak in the tongues of men with angels but have not love, at least I can speak in tongues. If I could give all I possess to the poor and surrender my body to the flames but act like a jerk to other people, I gain nothing. Love is patient, except when you're waiting for something to come in the mail. Love is kind. Love is not rude, except when someone else is being rude to you. Love always protects, always trusts, always hopes, and always perseveres. 	12.
 Love always perseveres. What are you persevering through now? Love never fails. In what ways has God shown us unfailing love? What are the things that Paul mentions that are not permanent? Why will we not need tongues and prophecies in the future? If I can speak in the tongues of men with angels but have not love, at least I can speak in tongues. If I could give all I possess to the poor and surrender my body to the flames but act like a jerk to other people, I gain nothing. Love is patient, except when you're waiting for something to come in the mail. Love is kind. Love is not rude, except when someone else is being rude to you. Love always protects, always trusts, always hopes, and always perseveres. 	13.
 Love never fails. In what ways has God shown us unfailing love? What are the things that Paul mentions that are not permanent? Why will we not need tongues and prophecies in the future? If I can speak in the tongues of men with angels but have not love, at least I can speak in tongues. If I could give all I possess to the poor and surrender my body to the flames but act like a jerk to other people, I gain nothing. Love is patient, except when you're waiting for something to come in the mail. Love is kind. Love is not rude, except when someone else is being rude to you. Love always protects, always trusts, always hopes, and always perseveres. 	14.	Love always hopes. Who or what do we hope in the most? Isaiah 40:31
 What are the things that Paul mentions that are not permanent?	15.	Love always perseveres. What are you persevering through now?
 Why will we not need tongues and prophecies in the future? True/False If I can speak in the tongues of men with angels but have not love, at least I can speak in tongues. If I could give all I possess to the poor and surrender my body to the flames but act like a jerk to other people, I gain nothing. Love is patient, except when you're waiting for something to come in the mail. Love is kind. Love is not rude, except when someone else is being rude to you. Love always protects, always trusts, always hopes, and always perseveres. 	16.	Love never fails. In what ways has God shown us unfailing love?
 If I can speak in the tongues of men with angels but have not love, at least I can speak in tongues. If I could give all I possess to the poor and surrender my body to the flames but act like a jerk to other people, I gain nothing. Love is patient, except when you're waiting for something to come in the mail. Love is kind. Love is not rude, except when someone else is being rude to you. Love always protects, always trusts, always hopes, and always perseveres. 	17.	What are the things that Paul mentions that are not permanent?
 If I can speak in the tongues of men with angels but have not love, at least I can speak in tongues. If I could give all I possess to the poor and surrender my body to the flames but act like a jerk to other people, I gain nothing. Love is patient, except when you're waiting for something to come in the mail. Love is kind. Love is not rude, except when someone else is being rude to you. Love always protects, always trusts, always hopes, and always perseveres. 		Why will we not need tongues and prophecies in the future?
 can speak in tongues. 2. If I could give all I possess to the poor and surrender my body to the flames but act like a jerk to other people, I gain nothing. 3. Love is patient, except when you're waiting for something to come in the mail. 4. Love is kind. 5. Love is not rude, except when someone else is being rude to you. 6. Love always protects, always trusts, always hopes, and always perseveres. 	True/
 but act like a jerk to other people, I gain nothing. 3. Love is patient, except when you're waiting for something to come in the mail. 4. Love is kind. 5. Love is not rude, except when someone else is being rude to you. 6. Love always protects, always trusts, always hopes, and always perseveres. 	1.	·	T/F
 Love is patient, except when you're waiting for something to come in the mail. Love is kind. Love is not rude, except when someone else is being rude to you. Love always protects, always trusts, always hopes, and always perseveres. 	2.	If I could give all I possess to the poor and surrender my body to the flames	T/F mail. 4. Love is kind. 5. Love is not rude, except when someone else is being rude to you. 6. Love always protects, always trusts, always hopes, and always perseveres. 		but act like a jerk to other people, I gain nothing.
5. Love is not rude, except when someone else is being rude to you.6. Love always protects, always trusts, always hopes, and always perseveres.	3.		T/F
6. Love always protects, always trusts, always hopes, and always perseveres.	4.	Love is kind.	T/F
	5.	Love is not rude, except when someone else is being rude to you.	T/F
7. Now these three remain; faith, hope, love, and barbecue.	6.	Love always protects, always trusts, always hopes, and always perseveres.	T/F
	7.	Now these three remain; faith, hope, love, and barbecue.	T/F