

Acts 28

1. How did the islanders on Malta show kindness to Paul and his companions? _____
2. How did God show protection over Paul's life when he got bit by the snake in vs.5-6? _____
3. How did the chief island official Publius show hospitality to Paul and his companions? _____

4. How did Paul minister to Publius' father? _____
What did the rest of the sick on the island do after that? _____

5. How did the Islanders show kindness to Paul and his companions in the days leading up to their departure for Rome? _____

6. Who greeted Paul when he arrived in Rome, and what was his living situation like when he got there? _____

7. Describe how Paul's conversation with the Jewish leaders in Rome went.

8. What did Paul do for the next 2 years? _____

Why does the book of Acts conclude with this note rather than tell us what happens to Paul? _____

True/False

1. Paul had a great time on Malta drinking malted milkshakes and malt and liquor beer. T/F
2. Instead of getting bit by the snake on Malta, Paul bit the snake. T/F

- | | |
|---|-----|
| 3. The Islanders had a great ministry of hospitality to Paul and his companions and Paul had a great ministry of the gospel and healing to the islanders. | T/F |
| 4. When Paul made it to Rome, he was greeted by fellow believers. | T/F |
| 5. Paul shared with the Jewish leaders the importance of allowing people to eat barbecue even during the Passover season. | T/F |
| 6. The Jewish leaders loved hearing about Jesus, but took great issue with Paul's insistence on the establishment of a Famous Dave's near the coast. | T/F |