

Ezekiel – Chapters 17 & 18

Chapter 17

1. In the parable of Ezekiel 17 what or who does the great eagle of vs.1-6 represent?

2. The great eagle of vs.1-6 took the top of the cedar, broke it off and carried it away to a land of merchants. What action of the Babylonian king does this represent?

3. Vs.7-8 represents an Egyptian pharaoh called upon by the Jewish king for help in fending off the Babylonian king. How will that work out according to vs.9-18?

4. What will God do to the Jewish king according to vs.19-21? _____

5. What beautiful promise follows in vs.22-24? _____

Chapter 18

6. Is the word to silence those who think they're suffering for the sins of their ancestors when they are really suffering for their own sins? _____
Why is it important to take responsibility for our own actions? _____

7. In vs.5-9, what will be the destiny of the righteous man who does what is right?

8. In vs.10-13, what will be the destiny of the righteous man's son who does not do what is right? _____

9. In vs.14-18, what is the destiny of the wicked man's son who does do what is right? _____

10. In vs.21-23, what happens to a wicked person who repents and does what is right? _____

In v.24, What happens to a righteous person who turns away from his righteousness and becomes evil? _____

11. What is God's strong word of invitation and challenge for all of us in vs.30-32? _____

True/False

1. Chapter 17 teaches that we should fly like an eagle to the sea. Fly like an eagle, let my spirit carry me. T/F
2. Chapter 17 makes it clear that Judah should trust in God and turn to God rather than to pagan countries for spiritual and military help. T/F
3. A righteous man who does what is right gets one of those McDonald's gold cards where he can eat at any McDonald's for free for all of eternity. T/F
4. A wicked person who repents and turns to God will live! T/F
5. A righteous person who turns from their righteousness and does evil will be forced to swim by himself in an aquarium full of orca whales for ten minutes. T/F