

Ezekiel – 4

1. God tells Ezekiel to take a clay tablet and draw the city of Jerusalem on it, and role-play an attack upon the city. Why does he tell him to do this? v.3

2. Even today, are there people who will understand the message better if you use images and stories? _____ Discuss
3. What does God tell Ezekiel to do next in vs.4-5? _____

Why is he to do this? _____

4. What does God tell Ezekiel to do in vs.6-8? _____
Why does he tell him to do this? _____

5. What is Ezekiel allowed to take for himself for food during the 390 days he lies on his side? vs.9-15 _____
6. Does Ezekiel have to do this 24/7, or is this something he does in the sight of Israel during the day and then goes home to sleep at night? _____

7. In vs.16-17, what harsh judgment will happen to the people of Jerusalem because of their sin? _____

8. Some people think this is harsh, but does the Almighty God, the creator of the universe reserve the right to judge and punish those who are stubborn and hardened and rebellious against him? _____ Discuss
9. These judgments happened a long time ago. Why were they written down for us? See Romans 15:4. _____

True/False

1. God tells Ezekiel to take a Kindle tablet and play video games for 390 days. T/F
2. God has Ezekiel act out a judgment on the city so that people can see that that will happen to them if they do not repent. T/F
3. God has Ezekiel lie on his side because he is a side sleeper. T/F

4. God says that Ezekiel can only eat Ezekiel bread for the 390 days he lies on his side. T/F
5. God will allow Ezekiel to make an exception and have Cap'n Crunch cereal on Sunday mornings. T/F