

Ezekiel – 6

1. Why does God tell Ezekiel to set his face toward the mountains of Israel? vs.1-2

---

---

2. What does God intend to do as an act of judgment on the mountains of Israel? vs.3-8

---

3. Based on Ezekiel 5:6, why is God carrying out this judgment?

---

---

4. Why will God spare some? vs.8-10

---

5. What will the remnant of Israelites who survived do while in exile? vs.9-10

---

---

6. How does God want Ezekiel to feel about the sins of Israel?

---

7. What will happen to unrepentant rebellious Israel? vs.12-14

---

---

8. Read Amos 5:25-27. Why is it true that God is not unjust in his judgments?

---

---

True/False

- |  |     |
|--|-----|
| 1. God tells Ezekiel to set his face toward the mountains of Israel because there's an awesome sunset and a rainbow. | T/F |
| 2. God punished the Israelites by canceling all of their Twitter accounts.   | T/F |
| 3. Every time Ezekiel obeyed God; he got an extra punch on his punch-card toward a free bagel at Big Apple bagels.   | T/F |

- 4. God punished the Israelites every single time they said something negative about the first lady. T/F
- 5. God is right and just in all his judgments. T/F