

Ezekiel – 7

1. What does God say to the land of Israel in vs.1-4? _____

2. According to vs.5-9, why is God repaying Israel with judgment? _____

3. How comprehensive is this judgment, who will it affect and impact? vs.10-14

4. What does God used to execute judgment on his people according to v.15?

5. As you read through vs.16-22, how did the survivors of this attack react? Describe their emotions and their responses. _____

6. Why does God say “prepare chains” in v. 23? _____

7. According to v.24 what kind of nation is going to take possession of the houses of Israel? _____
8. As you look at vs.25-26, what does it say that people will do to try to get relief from the judgment? _____

9. After the judgment of God is upon them, what will the people know? vs.27-28

10. I don't always like to talk about the judgment of God, but what would be the danger of only emphasizing his love and not emphasizing his wrath and holiness and judgment? _____

True/False

1. After it was discovered that the Best Buy in Appleton East was closing, God said “the end has come”. T/F
2. When God said “the end has come,” he was talking specifically about the people in the land of Israel, that the end has come upon their country because of their conduct. T/F
3. When God announced that there would be doom for the people of Israel, they thought that he was talking about the new Doom 64 Nintendo video game. T/F
4. As a punishment on the nation of Israel, everybody got canceled from Facebook and YouTube. T/F
5. The worst part of the judgment was that God said the people would never be allowed to eat chocolate chip cookies ever again, an abomination that continues to this day. T/F