

Galatians - 4

1. The law of God was like a guardian, a babysitter, the trustee. We were slaves to the law, to the basic principles of the world. What tremendous event changed things according to vs.4-5? _____

2. What things are said about the birth of Christ and the reason for the birth of Christ in vs.4-5? _____

3. Because we are God's sons and daughters, who else did God send into our hearts? _____
4. Notice what God did for us: he sent his Son to redeem us, his Spirit to sustain us, and what else did God do for us in v.7? _____

5. V.8 says that before we knew God, we were slaves to what? _____

6. What unbelievably dumb thing were the Galatians doing in vs.9-11? _____
_____ Why would the apostle Paul see this as a terrible mistake? _____

7. Should we interpret vs.9-11 as meaning that we should never celebrate special holidays? _____ Why or why not? _____

8. What does Paul mean by "become like me, because I became like you?" _____

9. In vs.13- 20, what circumstances caused Paul to be in the area to share the gospel? _____

10. In vs.21-31, Paul speaks of Hagar the slave woman and Sarah the free woman who is the mother of the child of promise. He tells an allegory, what does he say that Hagar represents and what does he say that Sarah represents? _____

11. Since God told Abraham to get rid of the slave woman, what application does Paul make for us? _____

12. Paul is laboring hard to defend the doctrine of salvation by faith in Christ. What are some of the doctrines today that Christians are being called on to defend?

True/False

1. At just the right time in salvation history, God sent Christ to redeem us. T/F
2. God sent the Spirit into our hearts which is the reason why we cannot help ourselves and must go to Chick-fil-A when we drive near one. T/F
3. The Galatians were in trouble because they were celebrating the Fourth of July and not the 25th of December. T/F
4. We are children of the promise through faith in Jesus Christ. T/F
5. The Galatians were such a popular church that they ended up making a TV show called Battlestar Galatians. T/F