Announcements

Passing of the Peace (Phil. 4:6-7): Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Call to Worship, Prayer of Confession, and Assurance of Pardon (Corporate)

Heavenly Father, thank You for the moment of truth when we learn we are not justified by what we do or how good we are but in Whom we believe. Open shame, O Lord, falls on us, our officials, and our ancestors, because we have sinned against You, "gratifying the cravings of our flesh and following its desires and thoughts. Like the rest, we were by nature deserving of wrath." As we confess these things, "because of his great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions—it is by grace you have been saved.” These are the Kingdom, the power, and the glory of Your works Lord, in the all-encompassing name of Christ Jesus. It is only through Him that we have access to You, all glory, power, and honor belong to Him, Amen.

Benediction: (Colossians 3:12-14): Therefore, as God’s chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience. Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity.

Dear Heavenly Father, we lift all that we see to You, trusting in Your sovereignty. We look to Your promises that uphold those who are suffering in the trials of life. Whether they be loss of loved ones, work, mobility, or assurance, we look to Your great grace and mercy for support. We also lift those who are joyful, continue to bless their smiles and hearts that serve you. We thank You in advance as You guide us through what is to come, for allowing us the time to recognize Your love and then time to share it. Thank You most of all for loving us first, providing us the face of grace in Jesus Christ. We pray this in His precious name, Amen.
