

2019 10 27 – 11 02

When God’s people lose sight of Him, the downtrodden and helpless are the first to suffer. Ezekiel’s message is difficult today: how much more in his day? His words are for our learning. Jeremiah prophesies to a city at war.

Paul’s Epistle to the Ephesians

Ephesus, that great market city, had been visited twice by Paul during his missionary travels. They have it all: wealth and poverty, plenty and want, children of God and offspring of heresy.

Even in the stronghold of Apollos’ twin sister Artemis, the truth of the Gospel takes hold.

In one of the best illustrations ever written, Paul gives the key to protect against one and be faithful with the other: chapter 6:10-18.

Sat	1-3	Paul discusses Election, Proofs, and a Mystery .
Sun	4-6	Paul explores Baptism, the Church, and the Armor of God.

To that end, keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints, and also for me, that words may be given to me in opening my mouth boldly to proclaim the mystery of the gospel, for which I am an ambassador in chains, that I may declare it boldly, as I ought to speak.
 Ephesians 6:18-20
