

November 17-23 The Best Witness in Daniel

Nebuchadnezzar is a work in progress. The mighty king would have executed people for not worshiping his image. From his mouth, this is what came of the attempt:

“I see four men unbound, walking in the midst of the fire, and they are not hurt; and the appearance of the fourth is like a son of the gods.” (Daniel 3:25)

His next proclamation as king is much less—ahem—self-centered:

“It has seemed good to me to show the signs and wonders that the Most High God has done for me. How great are his signs, how mighty his wonders! His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion endures from generation to generation.” (4:2-4)

Week 47

The Message

In his second sparkling epistle, Peter gets right to the point. His boldness rests on what he believes. These what God has said, what God has done, and what God will do. Old Peter did not waver in this belief.
