

Week 16 Readings

Moses has hit his stride in Deuteronomy, his final public address to the nation of Israel. He is winding down. Good things are coming, he says: don't forget why. This is not because of any righteousness you may have, but because of Yahweh's mercy. Remember the Golden Calf. Remember the right path.

Jesus speaks in serious tones. This is not a pleasure cruise or jungle safari on which we embark: it is a journey for life that must lead to death. John here provides an example. Let the reader understand.
