

July 21-27 The Things We Chase

Whoever isolates himself seeks his own desire; he rages against all sound judgment. (18:1)
 Desire without knowledge is not good; (19:2)
 An inheritance hastily gained in the beginning will not be blessed in the end. (20:21)

So it goes. Every chapter covers the important themes. Every daily passage visits and revisits hallowed ground. Here we are led by God's voice. These things lead life. Mind where your heart looks. There your feet will follow. Seek ye the Lord! Thanks for reading. Pben

Our New Testament readings for the coming weekend bring us to the era in which James wrote his epistle. Thinking of this helps us understand the context and possible specific targets of his comments.
