From Our Pastor

You Are A Chosen People

My father bought a beat-up old army truck when I was five years old. He brought that big truck home, and I wondered what in the world it was good for. Then we drove into the desert and came back with a load of gravel from the arroyos. We used that gravel to make cement. And we sifted it to make mortar.

He went to the piles of rocks in the arroyos that I thought had no use, and he loaded them into the old truck. He built a house out of the gravel and sand and rock from the arroyos in the desert. And it was a great house, still standing 63 years later, made of materials that most men would have passed over.

You may think you are insignificant, even useless. But God sees something in you that you cannot see in yourself. He gave his Son to save you and bring you into his covenant of grace. You are on display in this world to bring him glory!
