

Bible Study for Next Week's Readings ~ March 15~ (verse to reference)

Psalm 95:1-9

- 1) What are we to do (1-2) and why? (3-5)
- 2) What are we to do (6) and why? (7a)
- 3) Who's bad example is not be to repeated (7b-9)
- 4) What have God's blessing with your past caused you to do in the present?

Exodus 17:1-7

- 1) What do the people do, and why? (1-2a)
- 2) What questions did Moses ask (2b) and how did the people respond? (3)
- 3) What did Moses ask God (4) and how did God answer? (5-6a)
- 4) Moses obeyed (6b) and changed the name of the place to remind of what? (7)
- 5) When have you complained and accused God? How did God respond, and what do you do to remember what you learned?

Romans 5:1-8

- 1) Because of our faith, what do we enjoy now with God and for what do we rejoice? (1-2)
- 2) We also rejoice in what, and why? (3-4)
- 3) Why does hope not disappoint us (5) and how has God shown His love for us? (6-8)
- 4) What is the best way God has shown His love for you? What are some other ways?

John 4:5-26 (27-30, 39-42)

- 1) Where was Jesus, and what conversation did he have with a Samaritan woman? (5-12)
- 2) What promise did Jesus make (13-14) and how did she respond? (15)
- 3) What did Jesus tell her to do (16) and how did she answer? (17a)

- 4) What did Jesus tell her about herself (17b-18) and what did this cause her to believe about Jesus? (19) What discussion about worship followed (20-24)

- 5) What did the woman say about the Messiah (25) and what did Jesus say about himself? (26)

- 6) What did the disciples, the woman and the townspeople do? (27-30)

- 7) What's the happy ending? (39-42)

- 8) Why do you believe Jesus is the Messiah and with whom have you shared this Good News?