Cold Relief Heatline 1 (800) 632-8175

Funded through the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) assists low-income individuals and families with the cost of heating their homes during the winter season. The program is managed by the Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD) in conjunction with 22 regional nonprofit and local government organizations. Benefits vary depending on income levels.

Worcester Community Action Council (WCAC) Energy Program 508-754-1176

There are income eligibility guidelines.
Program runs from November 1 through April.

Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP)

WCAC's Fuel Assistance Program is designed to provide relief to those households that are most vulnerable to high home heating costs. Massachusetts' Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) targets assistance to households with the lowest incomes and highest average energy costs. The LIHEAP is intended to help defray the cost of heat during the winter months, November 1 – April 30 of each year.

WCAC applications for the 2021-22 season will be accepted beginning November 1st.
Recertifications for past fuel assistance recipients have begun via U.S. mail.
