What does it mean to be righteous? The scripture lessons this morning seek to answer that question. The passage in Colossians focuses on the process of sanctification—opening oneself to the fruit-bearing work of Christ and growing in love and service. Luke's gospel lesson is the classic parable of the good Samaritan. This story, filled with layers and depth, nettles our self-righteousness by reminding us of the extravagant love of God that can be experienced from strangers and outsiders.

The people of Jonesboro Heights Baptist Church invite you to commit your life to Christ as His disciple and join our congregation as a member.

Our ministers would be delighted to talk with you about making a commitment to Jesus Christ. Please see them following the end of the worship service today, or contact the church office to schedule an appointment with them.

If you would like to become a member of Jonesboro Heights Baptist Church, you may come forward during the hymn of commitment following the sermon and present yourself as a candidate for membership. We receive members 1) upon profession of faith in Christ followed by believer's baptism; 2) by transfer of membership from another Baptist church; or 3) by statement of previous Christian experience.
