Please keep silent during this time, using this time to make the transition between our relaxed and joyful coming together and our respectful, intentional worship of God. Take this opportunity to fold your hands, to quiet your thoughts, to still your soul, to open your heart. In the sanctity of this moment, prepare yourself for an encounter with the living God.

Communion Sunday

In observing Communion, we are remembering Christ and all that He has done for us in His life, death and resurrection. When observing Communion, we take time to examine ourselves. In observing Communion, we are also proclaiming His death until He comes. When we observe Communion, we show our participation in the body of Christ. His life becomes our life and we become members of the body of Christ.
