From the Desk of Our Senior Pastor

On the 13th of June, as I stood with the graduates in the foyer, just before we came into the sanctuary, there was kind of a flurry of last minute questions. “What are YOU going to say when it’s YOUR turn at the pulpit?!?” They all shared their thoughts but I think anxiety was still high. At that moment one of my favorite Scriptures came to mind and I spoke it loud enough for all to hear: Joshua 1:9 “Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous! Do not tremble or be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.”

I certainly understand their anxiety because transitions are tough. In fact the entire church is in the midst of a great transition. Nick will begin as our Pastor of Youth, Children and Families in just a few days. Marva Lee is preparing to retire and is training Erica to join the JHBC family. Richard is preparing to retire and enjoy a much deserved new era with his family. Joan has begun as our church pianist. That’s a lot of change! How do we manage that change and perhaps the anxiety that might come with it?

Before I try to answer that, I would like to offer my personal thanks to Marva Lee and Richard. We will surely have some kind of church wide recognition for these two, but here are some personal thoughts.

Marva Lee, the thing I always appreciated the most about you was that I knew without a doubt you were going to get the job done, with excellence. If it meant coming in during an evening, or a weekend, I never had to ask – I just knew that it was important to you to care for the families of the church, often at their most needful times. I didn’t need to check your work, or ask how you were going to get it done... you just did it. You have been a blessing to me and this church. Thank you, and may God bless you richly as you transition into this new era of your life.

Richard, I have always appreciated and admired your steadiness and faithfulness to this church. Over the last seven years we have dealt with such a spectrum of tasks, many which were difficult. But there was never a time when you and I couldn’t sit and talk things through and figure out a way to move forward. You did the same for so many in the church. We may not always have agreed, but you always responded with steadiness and respect and I will never forget that. Thank you, and may God bless you as well, and your entire family.

Yes, that’s a lot of change! How will we manage it? We will manage it... together! The Apostle Paul says it this way; Phil 2:2 “...by being of the same mind, maintaining the same love, united in spirit, intent on one purpose.” And in RO 8:31 “What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who is against us?”

We move forward...TOGETHER!

Do not tremble or be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.

May God bless you and yours and JHBC!
Pastor Cal

OUR FAMILY CORNER

Our God Never Changes

It has only been three and a half years since I first moved away from home, but so much has changed. I got the opportunity to go home for Memorial Day a couple weeks ago, and I was shocked at all of the changes. Restaurants that held so many memories with friends and family were closed and new restaurants appeared in their place. New roads are being constructed to make getting around faster. Churches I grew up with had new pastors. My old school is no longer in the building it was when I graduated. Friends were all married, many have kids... and I'm stuck in the past, it seems. Cottage Grove and Paris are no longer the same towns I grew up in.

But then I also got to thinking... I am no longer the same person I was three years ago either. A lot has happened in three years. From turning 21 and leaving my family behind, to holding the unique job of transporting for a Funeral Home network, to actually getting hired in my first full-time ministry job and moving again to South Carolina, to navigating ministry in a global pandemic, to the retirement of my Senior Pastor... well, I think you get the point. Change is something that is inevitable in our lives, and I'm typically not a fan. And when too much change happens around me, I feel like I'm a ship in a storm.

As I was spending a large amount of time on the road the past couple of weeks, I was listening to my music, and one of my favorite songs popped up. The words of the second verse, chorus, and bridge hit me with a reminder.

*“When darkness seems to hide His face, I rest on His unchanging grace.
In every high and stormy gale, my anchor holds within the veil.
Christ alone, cornerstone, weak made strong in the Savior’s love.
Through the storm, He is Lord, Lord of All.
On Christ the Solid Rock I stand, all other ground is sinking sand,
All other ground is sinking sand.”*

When our faith, hope, and trust is placed where it should be (in God, and not in man), we can rest in the fact that He has us, that He is “the same yesterday, today, and forever” (Hebrews 13:8).

We are walking through this season of change together. I am so very excited to be a part of this chapter of JHBC’s history... but I am also nervous (and a little stressed, if we are being honest) with all of these changes happening in my life. But praise the LORD that He is a constant in our lives, and that He is walking right next to us the entire way!

May the Lord bless you and keep you. I cannot wait to be with y’all starting July 6th!

Pastor Nick

I have had a little sticky note with a scripture written on it on my desk for the last couple of months, ever since I mentioned it in one of our services. And, yes, that may say something about the tidiness of my desk. But I left it there intentionally, with the hopes that as I continued to see it day after day as I worked, that the message would sink into my heart and mind.

This is what it says:

“Rejoice always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus.” - I Thessalonians 5:16-18

Quite possibly the shortest three-verse passage in the Bible, but very powerful instructions for us as God’s people. That’s what I like, succinct, easily-understood instructions. Unfortunately, not all instructions given to us make quite as much sense. Take these product-use instructions, for example.

- Clothes washer (like you find at a laundromat) - “DO NOT put any person in this washer.”
- Sun Shield (for your car’s front windshield) - “Do not drive with sun shield in place.”
- Vidal Sassoon Hair Blow Dryer - “Do not use while sleeping.”
- Jabra ‘Drive ‘n’ Talk’ Bluetooth Speaker - “Never operate your speakerphone while driving.”
- Fox/Bobcat Urine Powder - “Not for human consumption.”
- Superman Costume - (note on company website) “Warning: this costume does not enable flight or super strength.”

I looked at this scripture passage and noticed that if you took the first letter of each of these three instructions, you get a possibly helpful way to remember this message.

R - Rejoice always

P - Pray continually

G - Give thanks in all circumstances

As a fan of high adventure movies, I immediately recognized this acrostic, RPG, which stands for Rocket-Propelled Grenade. I’m sure many of you would have done the same. Others are now questioning my sanity. So, in the strange and unique way that I think, I imagined that you could use the acrostic to remind yourself of how to destroy the Devil’s schemes that are designed to separate you from God, by using this RPG.

First, rejoice always. There something wonderful, but sadly unique about people who have embraced this first instruction. These people stand out from the crowd because of this commitment, and that’s what it is. It’s not that these people don’t face the same things that seem to steal our joy, they just deal with it differently than most of the rest of us. I thank God for people like Dan Kerr (a friend from Iowa) and Ann Alford for reminding me, not that this is possible, but that it is a great sign that they have a hope in Christ that is bigger than anything the world can offer.

Second, pray continually. Prayer is a rare gift, in providing a means for us to have an ongoing conversation with God. I say ongoing, because it is possible for us to walk in fellowship and communion with God at any time or place in our day. We are only limited by our own desire to stop this conversation. Something I’m not sure why I do, when I know that God is concerned with even the smallest matter in my life. So, let’s keep that prayer-line open.

Lastly, give thanks in all circumstances. We can be grateful, even when things are not going the best, because we trust God’s word when it says, “And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.” (Romans 8:28). I heard Pastor Cal say recently that there will come a time when we may be able to understand why certain things happened in our lives. But until then, let’s just trust that the God who made us, loves us, and sustains us deserves our thanks in every situation.

DEACON'S CORNER

Submitted by Michael Wilkins

The JHBC Deacons held their monthly meeting on Monday, June 7, 2021. Our devotional time was led by Eddie Bowling and was entitled, "God's Plan For Our Lives" and scripture was shared from Proverbs 3: 5-6 and Jeremiah 29: 11.

Deacons shared prayer concerns and requests from their deacon families and other contacts as well as praises. Eddie led us in prayer before we continued the meeting.

Minutes from the May meeting were reviewed and approved.

Pastor Cal provided his monthly report and shared moments from Nick's testimony and the upcoming testimony and message by Ariane on Sunday, June 13. We look forward to welcoming Nick Smetak on July 7.

Ron Rouse shared the personnel committee update and reported on the positive way God has moved and led candidates to our church during the search process for minister of youth, administrative assistant, church administrator, and church pianist. We are thankful for our personnel committee and the way they have ministered to our church during this time of search.

Mike Wilkins shared an update from the scholarship committee for 2021. We are happy to have awarded $21,859.40 with our scholarship applicants.

Pastor Cal gave us an update on the estimates for electrical and WIFI service for the East property and John Hall and Tommy Matthews provided an update on acquiring new columns.

Sunday school will be returning to our regular classrooms on Sunday, June 20. We look forward to once again meeting with our regular Sunday School classes. A special thanks to those that provided Sunday School for us during this transition.

Tommie Angel offered prayer and the meeting was adjourned. The next Deacon meeting will be held on Monday, July 12 at 6:30 PM.

Continue to pray for our church and leaders daily that we may continue to grow and share our love of God with others in our community and beyond.

DEACON NOMINEES

The following is a list of nominees in alphabetical order with a short sketch of their service. We will have our Annual Church Business Meeting to vote on the Budget, Nominating Committee Recommendations and Deacons on Sunday, July 18, 2021.

RAMONA BOWLING - For those who may not know, I was born and raised in Sanford, NC. Guided by loving, Christian parents who made sure my brothers and I were at Jonesboro Heights Baptist Church every Sunday morning and every Sunday night, JHBC has played an important role in my life for as long as I can remember. It is here at JHBC that I proclaimed Jesus Christ as my personal Lord and Savior at the age of nine. It is here at JHBC where I have served God in various roles; it is here at JHBC where I continue to grow spiritually; it is here at JHBC where I am fortunate to raise my nephew, Chase Bowling; and it is here at JHBC that I witnessed Chase accepting Jesus Christ as his own personal Lord and Savior. I am humbled and honored to serve our mighty God and this His church in whatever capacity He chooses for me. Colossians 3:17 And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

BILL DAVIS - Greetings Church Family. I am Bill Davis and my wife is Judy. We transferred our membership from Jonesboro Heights Presbyterian Church in 2014 to JHBC. We miss our Church Family at Jonesboro Heights Presbyterian Church. We were members there since 1973. I served as a Deacon while there Judy and I were raised in Baptist Churches and we both accepted Jesus Christ at an early age. We have been very happy at JHBC. We love our Church Family at JHBC and I have been honored to serve on JHBC Fellowship of Deacons Board (active from 2016 through 2019). If I am chosen to serve again I will be honored to serve our Church Family.

PHIL LAWRENCE - I became a Christian at a young age and has been serving the Lord ever since that day. Phil has been a member of JHBC for 31 years. He has served in the following capacities: deacon, youth committee, children's committee, chairman of building and grounds committee, served as chairman of nominating committee, RA leader and preschool assistant. He shares his love of the Lord with his wife Sonja and three daughters, Bailey, Katelyn, and Johnna.

JAMES MITCHELL - My wife and I, Catherine began attending Jonesboro Heights Baptist Church in 1996 and became members in 1997. We have two children, Meredith 21 and Jay 18. Originally from Sanford, I have lived here the majority of my life. I have served several roles in our church including: Deacon, RA leader, Parliamentarian, Finance committee, Investment committee, Scholarship committee, and as an usher. Also, I have tried to be active in our community, serving as a board member and past president of The Stevens Center, past president and current member of The Sanford Rotary Club and a past board member of the YMCA. I graduated from East Carolina University in 1994 with a B.S. and Campbell University in 1999 with a MBA.

RUSS STEVENS - Jesus became my Savior when I was 19; on a beach in Panama. Sheila and I met in 1976 when we both worked at K-mart (she still claims, to this day, that I was her "blue light special"). We were married in 1978 and God has blessed us with two beautiful daughters, Elizabeth and Mary. We moved to Sanford in May 1988 and soon after began attending, and joining JHBC. I have served on the Personnel Committee twice, still currently a member of this committee. I served as a deacon from 2017-2020.

TIME TO PURCHASE SHOES

Purchase any size, any style of sturdy tennis or school shoes for children and youth

Drop off at JHBC anytime on or before
Monday, July 26, 2021

Shoes will be accepted up to the time of team leaving on Thursday, August 5, but team will be processing and bagging shoes on July 26.

You or your class can also make a monetary donation and the team will do your shopping for you!

Sandy Creek Baptist Association in partnership with the Powell River Baptist Association sponsors the Shoe Fair Mission each year to provide shoes for all ages of school children. For some of these children the pair of shoes that we fit them with is probably the only new pair of shoes they will get, therefore we ask that you be generous and participate in this mission, not only in your support of purchasing shoes (and socks) but in your prayers each day that their physical needs be met, and that the team might have a big part in meeting their spiritual needs. JHBC is the Project Coordinating Church (PCC) for the association. Last year we had eight Sandy Creek churches represented on the mission team. This will be the 8th year we have sponsored this mission and gone to Jonesville, Virginia. We covet your prayers and support.
