JN 14:12 "Truly, truly, I say to you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do, he will do also; and greater works than these he will do; because I go to the Father. ^{JN 14:13}
"Whatever you ask in My name, that will I do, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. ^{JN 14:14} "If you ask Me anything in My name, I will do it."

'Whatever you ask...I will do' surely sounds appealing. Of course we note there is a clause; 'Whatever you ask in My name...' Intuitively most of us understand that adding 'In the name of Jesus' at the end of our prayer isn't enough, isn't a magical charm or an Aladdin's lamp.

Rather praying in Jesus' name is doing our humble best to align ourselves with His character and His purpose as we sense the leading of the Spirit and as we read His Word. What an incredible promise! "If you ask Me anything in My name, I will do it."

So, what are you asking for? What's the true desire of YOUR heart? About a month ago I sat down with a piece of paper and tried to answer that question. I wrote it out because I wanted to make sure that it was focused, true, aligned with the Scripture, and that I could pray in the name of Jesus. This is what I wrote.

- In Jesus' name I pray that the hearts of this church, beginning with mine, would be turned and our one desire would be to bring glory to God.
- In Jesus' name I pray to experience a mighty movement of the Spirit in this church, empowering us to GO and share the Gospel.
- In Jesus' name I pray that many would come to know Christ through this people.

What do you think? Do such requests align with His character and His purpose? I continue to pray daily, fervently for these things. But what about you? Do these prayers reflect your heart's desire?

Dear church family, I want to ask you to do two things, perhaps the most important things I have ever asked. First, take time to consider, meditate, pray; 'What truly is my heart's desire?' We all know the 'right answer' but just between you and the Spirit of God what is the true answer. Perhaps, like me, it will help you to write them down and edit them until the words are focused, true, and aligned with the Scripture. Perhaps it will help to mediate and pray over God's word; John 14:12-14, Colossians 1:16-18, or Revelation 4:5-11.

Secondly, if you come to similar conclusions as I did, I ask you, beg you, to pray fervently for this: On Easter Sunday, April 4th 2021, many will accept Jesus as their Savior. Pray fervently every day!

The ministry team and the deacons are working together to make this Easter service very special. There will be beautiful music and a clear presentation of the Gospel. But if we do not pray, in His name, aligned with His will, we can expect nothing. But if we do, praying, abiding and believing, we can expect wondrous things! All for God's glory and for the sake of the lost! Won't you take the time to ask yourself, ask the Spirit, 'What truly is my heart's desire?'

In His Love,
Pastor Cal

JN 15:5 "I am the vine, you are the branches; he who abides in Me and I in him, he bears much fruit, for apart from Me you can do nothing.

JN 15:6 "If anyone does not abide in Me, he is thrown away as a branch and dries up; and they gather them, and cast them into the fire and they are burned.

JN 15:7 "If you abide in Me, and My words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you.

JN 15:8 "My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit, and so prove to be My disciples.

In His Love,
Pastor Cal

The Family Corner,

Update from Your Personnel Committee:

Submitted By Ron Rouse

Hello everyone. I would like to give you another brief update on the status of our search for an Associate Pastor of Youth, Children, & Families.

In response to our postings made the first week in November we have received 16 resumes for consideration from potential candidates. In mid-January the committee began meeting to prayerfully review and discuss each candidates resume. After careful consideration and prayer, we were able to reduce those 16 down to a small number of semifinalists. Following additional consideration and prayer we reduced the number of semifinalists down to an even smaller number of finalists. Zoom interviews were held with the finalists the second week in February. In the coming weeks, God willing, we hope to have face-to-face interviews as well. We will go from there as God leads us.

As this process has progressed our goal has been and will continue to be to follow God's will for Jonesboro Heights Baptist Church as He lays it on our hearts and minds, thereby bringing glory to Him and to His church. As we continuously and earnestly pray for God's will to be done we humbly ask that you join us in that prayer of agreement. We feel nothing is more important to the successful outcome of this search than our dependence, obedience, and trust in God to be our sole guide and the prayers that we offer up to Him in that regard.

I will continue to keep you updated as we proceed.

Thank you and God bless.

As I write this, I am sitting in my office on a day when large swaths of the country are experiencing unheard of winter temperatures. Piles of snow and ice in Texas, major car pileups on the interstate, and rolling black-outs in a number of states just to help control the use of the available electricity. So much for solar panels and wind turbines, they're all froze up! Crazy! Fortunately for us here in Sanford, things are pretty good (at least in comparison). Many folks have already got their first, if not their second vaccination, and the rest of us have reason to hope that ours isn't too far off. The one thing, however, that seems to hold us back from moving forward is our inability to freely fellowship with those we have missed for so long.

I wondered, "When exactly did Covid goof things up at church?" I looked back in my records for what the Choir sang on every Sunday, and here's what I saw on March 29 (2020) - "No Choir - Corona Virus". Who would have guessed that by the end of this month (March), it will have been a whole year that we've been dealing with this Covid thing?! In the beginning, we were thinking we'd be past it in a matter of weeks. Good thing I'm not a gambling man!

So, I thought, "What would be encouraging for our people to hear?" And the craziest thing came to mind... "The sun'll come out, tomorrow." That's right, probably the most recognizable song from the great musical "Annie". I can't tell you how many times we watched that movie when our kids (mostly Katie, of course) were young. There have been many reproductions of that movie, but my favorite is the 1982 version with Carol Burnett as Miss Hanigan. In fact, maybe we're feeling like "It's a hard knock life" right about now.

But, fortunately for us, we have more going for us than just someone saying, "Hang on, just keep hanging on!" We have a God that says to us, "For I know the plans I have for you. They are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope." (Jer. 29:11). In Psalm 30, David writes this:

¹ I will exalt you, Lord, for you rescued me.

You refused to let my enemies triumph over me.

² O Lord my God, I cried to you for help, and you restored my health.

³ You brought me up from the grave,^[a] O Lord.

You kept me from falling into the pit of death.

⁴ Sing to the Lord, all you godly ones! Praise his holy name.

⁵ For his anger lasts only a moment, but his favor lasts a lifetime!

Weeping may last through the night, but joy comes with the morning.

Hey, look! Joy comes in the morning! Maybe Annie was on to something! Or not. Still, our God has great love for us, and only wants the best for us. Paul knew this, and in writing to the young Christian church in Colosse, he encouraged them to hang on as well, saying this.

Colossians 1:11-14:

¹¹ We also pray that you will be strengthened with all his glorious power so you will have all the endurance and patience you need. May you be filled with joy,¹² always thanking the Father. He has enabled you to share in the inheritance that belongs to his people, who live in the light.¹³ For he has rescued us from the kingdom of darkness and transferred us into the Kingdom of his dear Son,¹⁴ who purchased our freedom and forgave our sins.

I pray this for you, as I pray it for myself. The endurance and patience we need to get through this will come from His glorious power that strengthens us. Give thanks to the Father who has rescued us from the kingdom of darkness and transferred us to the light, the Kingdom of Jesus.

DEACON'S CORNER

Submitted by Eddie Bowling

On Monday, February 1, the Board of Deacons met for our monthly meeting. Chairman John Hall opened the meeting and Mike Wilkins led our devotion. He read scripture from Philippians 4:6-7 "Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God." Mike spoke about the anxiety that some of his students were having during these uncertain times. He was especially proud of one of his students who wrote a letter to him. After prayer requests, concerns and praises were shared from our Family Deacon Ministry, Mike closed his devotion with prayer.

Minutes from the January 11 meeting were approved. Pastor Cal shared his monthly report. He spoke of congregational needs, church and ministry activities, and upcoming events on the church calendar.

Ronnie Rouse, chairman of the Personnel Committee, gave an update on the search for an Associate Pastor of Youth, Children and Families. He reported that the committee has received sixteen resumes, and they have cut the list of three. Please remember to keep in prayer this important position and that God will lead His chosen one to us. Our thanks to this hard-working committee.

Other topics of discussion were:

- Reopening of Church on February 7
- Ideas for ministry outreach
- Financial update and budget outlook
- Congregational feedback

The most important thing we can do as individuals and as a congregation is to pray. God makes it so simple for us to talk to Him. God wants to talk to us, and He always listens. Prayer is worship. God gave His only Son to die for all of us, not some of us. God wants all of us, not part of us.

The meeting was closed in prayer for Eddie Bowling.

The next Deacons' meeting will be held on Monday, March 1, 2021.

Bereavement Ministry Update

A special thank you is extended to Sheila Stevens, Chair for Group 4 of the Bereavement Ministry for organizing the luncheon for the family of Jewel Baker on Saturday, February 6, 2021 at 11:15 AM. The luncheon was served at the home. Bringing food was Angie Wood, Joy Scott, Judy Davis, Kaye Cummings, Sandy Lamm, Vickie Wilkins, Vicky Matthews and Sheila Stevens. Paper products were furnished by the church.

Card Ministry Update

God's Valentine gift of love to us was not a bunch of flowers; it wasn't candy, or a book to read away the hours. His gift was to become a man, so He could freely give His sacrificial love for us, so you and I could live. He gave us sweet salvation, good and true—to love our friends and enemies and love our Savior, too.

So as we have given our Valentines, let us continue to thank our Lord and King; the reason we have love to give is that He gave everything.

Agnes Kelly, Jean Kelly and Sandy Brown mailed over 100 Valentine cards to honor our church seniors.

The Card Ministry brings much joy and love to our church family.

WHO IS JESUS?

MY PROPHET

He is God's Word in the flesh.

He preached God's Word.

He still preaches through others He has sent.

MY PRIEST

He kept the Law for me.

He sacrificed Himself for me.

He continues to pray for me.

MY KING

He rules all things.

He protects His people.

He will take me to heaven.

TRUE GOD

He is and always has been eternal.

He never changes.

He has all power.

He knows all things.

He is everywhere and with us.

TRUE MAN

He became a human in the flesh.

He felt sadness and joy.

He was hungry and was tempted.

He never sinned.

He died on the cross for me.

MY SAVIOR

He saved me from sin, death, and the devil.

He bought and redeemed me with His blood.

He became poor to make me rich in grace.

He lives and is the Savior of the World.

He brings forgiveness, life and salvation.

PALM SUNDAY SCRIPTURES

On Sunday, March 28, 2021, we will celebrate Palm Sunday. What does the Bible say about Palm Sunday? The following is a list of the top Bible verses about Palm Sunday from the Old and New Testaments that was compiled and edited by BibleStudy Tools Staff on September 19, 2019.

John 12:12-19 - The next day the great crowd that had come for the Feast heard that Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem. ¹³ They took palm branches and went out to meet him, shouting, "Hosanna!" "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!" "Blessed is the King of Israel!" ¹⁴ Jesus found a young donkey and sat upon it, as it is written, ¹⁵ "Do not be afraid, O Daughter of Zion; see, your king is coming, seated on a donkey's colt." ¹⁶ At first his disciples did not understand all this. Only after Jesus was glorified did they realize that these things had been written about him and that they had done these things to him. ¹⁷ Now the crowd that was with him when he called Lazarus from the tomb and raised him from the dead continued to spread the word. ¹⁸ Many people, because they had heard that he had given this miraculous sign, went out to meet him. ¹⁹ So the Pharisees said to one another, "See, this is getting us nowhere. Look how the whole world has gone after him!"

John 12:13 - They took palm branches and went out to meet him, shouting, "Hosanna!" "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!" "Blessed is the King of Israel!"

Revelation 7:9 - After this I looked and there before me was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, tribe, people and language, standing before the throne and in front of the Lamb. They were wearing white robes and were holding palm branches in their hands.

Psalms 92:12 - The righteous will flourish like a palm tree, they will grow like a cedar of Lebanon;

Deuteronomy 34:3 - ...the Negev and the whole region from the Valley of Jericho, the City of Palms, as far as Zoar.

Exodus 15:27 - Then they came to Elim, where there were twelve springs and seventy palm trees, and they camped there near the water.

Song of Songs (Solomon) 7:7 - Your stature is like that of the palm, and your breasts like clusters of fruit.

Judges 4:5 - She held court under the Palm of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim, and Israelites came to her to have their disputes decided.

I Kings 6:29 - On the walls all around the temple, in both the inner and outer rooms, he carved cherubim, palm trees and open flowers.

Leviticus 23:40 - On the first day you are to take choice fruit from the trees, and palm fronds, leafy branches and poplars, and rejoice before the Lord your God for seven days.

Zechariah 9:9 - Rejoice greatly, O Daughter of Zion! Shout, Daughter of Jerusalem! See, your king comes to you, righteous and having salvation, gentle and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

Matthew 21:1-11 - ¹As they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage on the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, ²saying to them,, “Go to the village ahead of you, and at once you will find a donkey tied there, with her colt by her. Untie them and bring them to me. ³If anyone says anything to you, tell him that the Lord needs them, and he will send them right away.” ⁴This took place to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet: ⁵“Say to the Daughter of Zion, ‘See, your king comes to you, gentle and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.’” ⁶The disciples went and did as Jesus had instructed them. ⁷They brought the donkey and the colt, placed their cloaks on them, and Jesus sat on them. ⁸A very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. ⁹The crowds that went ahead of him and those that followed shouted, “Hosanna to the Son of David!” Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!” “Hosanna in the highest!” ¹⁰When Jesus entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred and asked, “Who is this?” ¹¹The crowds answered, “This is Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth in Galilee.”

Mark 11:1-11 - ¹As they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of his disciples, ²saying to them, “Go to the village ahead of you, and just as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, which no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here. ³If anyone asks you, ‘Why are you doing this?’ tell him, ‘The Lord needs it and will send it back here shortly.’” ⁴They went and found a colt outside in the street, tied at a doorway. As they untied it, ⁵some people standing there asked, “What are you doing, untying that colt?” ⁶They answered as Jesus had told them to, and the people let them go. ⁷When they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks over it, he sat on it. ⁸Many people spread their cloaks on the road, while others spread branches they had cut in the fields. ⁹Those who went ahead and those who followed shouted, “Hosanna!” ¹⁰“Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!” “Hosanna in the highest!” ¹¹Jesus entered Jerusalem and went to the temple. He looked around at everything, but since it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the Twelve.

Luke 19:28-44 - ²⁸After Jesus had said this, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. ²⁹As he approached Bethphage and Bethany at the hill called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, ³⁰“Go to the village ahead of you, and as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, which no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here. ³¹If anyone asks you, ‘Why are you untying it?’ tell him, ‘The Lord needs it.’” ³²Those who were sent ahead went and found it just as he had told them. ³³As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, “Why are you untying the colt?” ³⁴They replied, “The Lord needs it.” ³⁵They brought it to Jesus, threw their cloaks on the colt and put Jesus on it. ³⁶As he went along, people spread their cloaks on the road. ³⁷When he came near the place where the road goes down the Mount of Olives, the whole crowd of disciples began joyfully to praise God in loud voices for all the miracles they had seen: ³⁸“Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord!” “Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!” ³⁹Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to Jesus, “Teacher, rebuke your disciples!” ⁴⁰“I tell you,” he replied, “if they keep quiet, the stone will cry out.” ⁴¹As he approached Jerusalem and saw the city, he wept over it ⁴²and said, “If you, even you, had only known on this day what would bring you peace—but now it is hidden from your eyes. ⁴³The days will come upon you when your enemies will build an embankment against you and encircle you and hem you in on every side. ⁴⁴This will dash you to the ground, you and the children within your walls. They will not leave one stone on another, because you did not recognize the time of God’s coming to you.”

Acts 12:4 - After arresting him, he put him in prison, handing him over to be guarded by four squads of four soldiers each. Herod intended to bring him out for public trial after the Passover.

II Kings 9:13 - They hurried and took their cloaks and spread them under him on the bare steps. Then they blew the trumpet and shouted, "Jehu is king!"

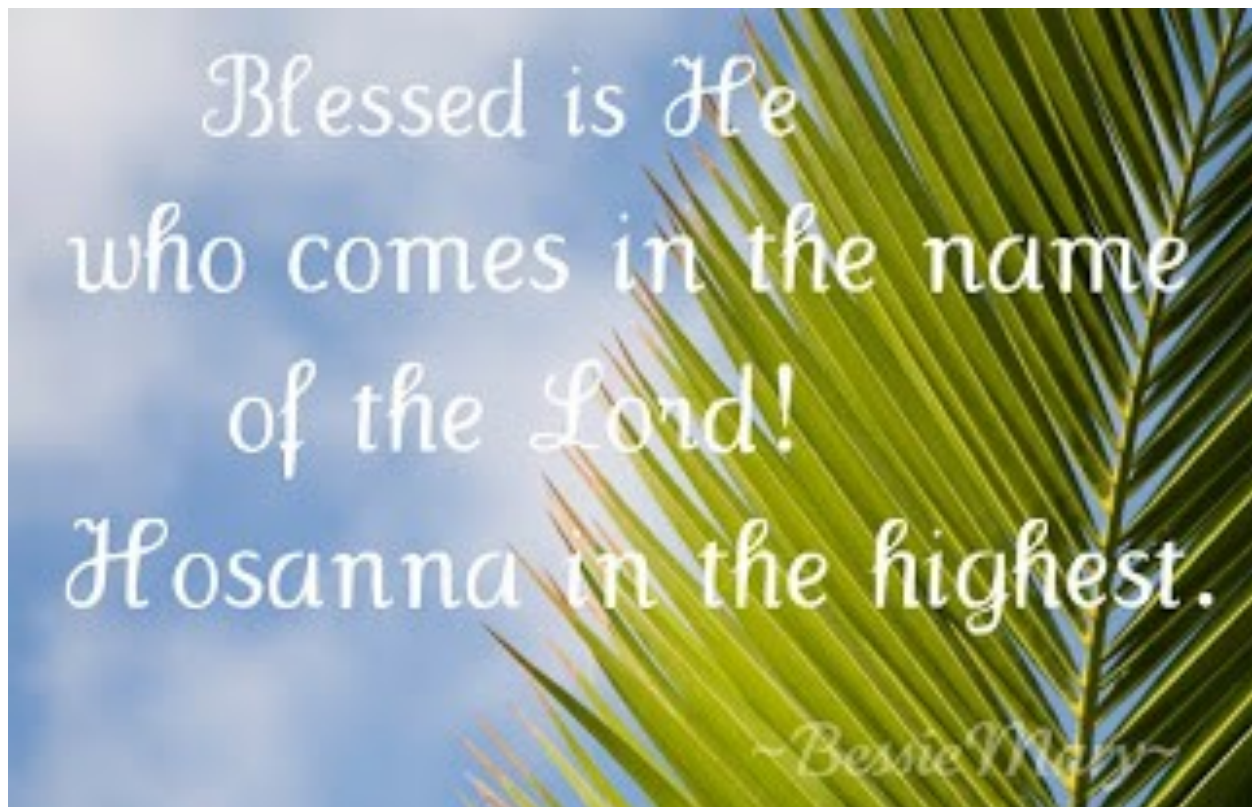

Psalms 118:26 - Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. From the house of the Lord we bless you.

Jeremiah 10:2 - This is what the Lord says: "Do not learn the ways of the nations or be terrified by signs in the sky, though nations are terrified by them.

Psalms 118:25-26 - O Lord, save us; O Lord, grant us success. ²⁶ Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. From the house of the Lord we bless you.

Luke 22:19-20 - And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me." ²⁰ In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.

Jeremiah 10:5 - Like a scarecrow in a melon patch, their idols cannot speak; they must be carried because they cannot walk. Do not fear them; they can do no harm nor can they do any good."
