FROM THE PASTOR'S PERSPECTIVE . .

Though the calendar says it's fall, as I'm writing this article, it still doesn't feel like fall has fallen! Nevertheless, it's here. And things are in full swing here at Jonesboro Heights Baptist Church.

Mission Jonesboro is up and going. Our first step of adopting J. Glenn Edwards Elementary School is well under way. A number of the teachers and staff have expressed appreciation for our offer to be prayer partners with them. Members of our congregation have given $640 toward providing sets of academic attire (school uniforms) for students whose family can't afford them. That amount will purchase about 42 uniforms. A volunteer team from our church has already packed the Backpack Pals food bags one week that help insure that the children from the lowest-income families have something nutritious to eat over the weekends. And in the coming weeks, JHBC volunteers will begin reading with students one-to-one in the Book Buddies program. Thank you to all who are supporting and participating in these important efforts. While at first glance they may appear to be simply service projects, remember that as we do these things prayerfully and in the name of Christ, our presence embodies the presence of Christ to those we encounter. And that prepares the way for us to share a verbal witness with those we are dealing with in these efforts. Just as Jesus often addressed physical or mental needs as a means to addressing spiritual needs, so we are ministering in His name to open doors to share the gospel with people so they might come to know Christ. I like how our Sandy Creek Association Director of Missions puts it: "Ministry is what we do with people inside the church; missions is what we do with people outside the church."

We will soon be taking the next step in this effort. Preparations are in process now to host an English-as-a-Second-Language class here in our facilities. We will need volunteers to help with child-care and supervision in this effort, and would like to involve families in it. Imagine how it might impact a young child from another country or culture, who is here for his or parents to learn to speak our language, not only to be in the care of kind adults, but to have children to play with as well! Imagine what kind of relationships might be built out of that setting that will pave the way to share the gospel in the future! Please be in prayer that God will raise up families to share in this task, and that God will use our hospitality to open doors for the gospel.

Another attempt to reach out to our surrounding neighborhoods will take place on Saturday, October 23 from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. In cooperation with the Humane Society of the U.S.A. and in partnership with the Shallow Well Church, we will host a free veterinary clinic on the grassy lot at the corner of Woodland Avenue and Globe Street (the former Mann property). As you know, veterinary care is very expensive. When the Humane Society contacted us about the possibility of such a clinic for our church, we responded by inquiring about opening it as an outreach to our community. They agreed, and Shallow Well leaders approached us about joining together for this effort. Again, providing this service has the potential to establish relationships in the community that will open doors to share the gospel. The service is open to members of our church who need to take advantage of it for their pets as well.

In our Sunday morning worship services (both 8:45 and 11:00), we have been focusing on the future, thinking biblically and theologically about specific areas of our life and ministry together as a church, and sharing plans about moving forward in these areas in strategic ways. Please be in prayer as we continue this emphasis in October. As you participate in these services, listen carefully and prayerfully with an open mind and heart. Understand that things we are sharing with you as staff and lay leaders are ways to build on and enhance what we've done in the past, expanding our reach not only to our church family but beyond to our community to bring people to Christ. Remember that the focus is on our mission to embody Christ's presence to Sanford and the world through our worship, our witness, and our way of life as His disciples.

On another note, October marks 19 years that Ronnie Byrd has served JHBC as our music and education minister. We are truly blessed to have him as a part of our staff and our church family. The music from week to week in our worship services as well as the special services and musicals demonstrate Ronnie's commitment to a music ministry that has integrity. His efforts to stay current with what is going on in Christian education gives evidence of his desire to help people know and grow in Christ. Thanks, Ronnie, for all you do in the ministry and mission of our church! You have served well, and we look forward to your continued ministry among us in the coming years.

Finally, our church received a wonderful expression of appreciation from our local National Guard unit a couple of weeks ago. You may remember that we announced a special celebration the unit was having at O. T. Sloan Park called Freedom Salute. Along with presenting several items to the soldiers (flags, certificates, special coins, etc.), the unit also presented expressions of thanks to individuals and groups who had offered support during their deployment. Ann Laton, who has served so well for a number of years as our Outreach Director, received a beautiful certificate of appreciation. The unit also presented our church with two very special gifts. One is a framed replica of the company flag. The other is the Minuteman statue, a very prestigious award that the Guard gives in recognition or appreciation. I was extremely honored to receive all these on behalf of our congregation. But what touched me even more was the genuine depth of gratitude that was expressed and the realization that our efforts to reach out to these soldiers and their families during this deployment had made a deep impact on them. May God be pleased to use that impact to bring those who don't already know Him to trust Him, and to help those who already do know Him to grow in their relationship with Him.

Grace and peace.

Your servant for Jesus' sake,

Mark E. Gaskins
Senior Pastor

Hey Churh Family!

We have had an exciting end of summer and beginning of the school year! On Saturday, October 21, we had a big back-to-school bash at Mr. & Mrs. Sam Wornom's house. (Thanks to the Wornom's for hosting us!) We had an awesome time hanging out, swimming, riding in the boat and tube, and having a cook-out. It was a great way to end the summer!

All our Wednesday night activities have gotten back to normal. The youth girls meet for Acteens at 6:00 PM every Wednesday. Mrs. Alicia Holly leads us in a great Bible study and fellowship. We want more girls (7th—12th grade) to come and join us for Acteens.

We have Youth at 7:00 PM every Wednesday. The Youth Center opens at 6:30 PM for us to come and hang out and the program starts at 7:00 PM. Every third Wednesday of the moth, we are having special youth-led Bible studies (separating boys and girls). We are very excited to start these new studies.

The weekend of September 24 through 26, our youth group went to Myrtle Beach for a youth retreat. We met some missionaries from a ministry called Delta Jewels. You can learn more about this ministry online. Some of our youth (Callie Batchelor, Mekaila Holly, Haley Kane, Ariane Smith, and Bryan Phillips) participated in a sand castle building contest. We won the certificate of "Boldest Sand Sculpture!"

Thank you for your prayers and support. We appreciate it very much!

Praise the Lord, fall is here and winter is just around the corner.

I just love wintertime, especially when it snows. That pure blanket of white snow that lays so perfect across the fields and lawns. Also, the icy tree limbs that make everything just glisten. However, I must confess I don't like Mr. Weather, when we have no electricity, etc. With all this comes Halloween: the children all decked out in their costumes along with the pumpkin carvings, and all the churches having their harvest celebrations. Then comes thanksgiving: another time of the year to pause and give thanks for the year's plentiful blessings. Then finally, Christmas: as the song writer puts it : "It's the Most Wonderful Time of the Year". Even though it's my busiest time of the year. it is also the most heartwarming time for me. We engage in all the festivities from the church musical programs, to eating with family and friends, to sharing of gifts, by looking and listening to all the special Christmas movies, musical concerts, reading all the children's Christmas books, refreshing and renewing myself by reading the Christmas Story. Let this Advent season be a reminder of how truly blessed we are by the coming of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. I am sure that that are many other blessings that I could write about, and I feel sure that some of you, too, have many blessings that you could share. My prayer is that our congregation will allow Jesus Christ to come into our hearts. May this season bless us with Christ's love and may we truly worship our Lord in spirit and in truth.

During the course of September and the month of October I pray that you have been listening to the series of sermons and the time of reflection on "Following Jesus into the Future". This has taken a lot of time to prepare, write and present such an extraordinary document. These dreams for JHBC were prayerfully and artistically written, then presented to the fellowship of deacons for approval and guidance. Revisions that were made about what the Lord would have us (the church fellowship) do for Him. Thanks to all whom helped in this endeavor.

Western Carolina University Choir in Concert — Our church will be hosting the Western Carolina University Choir on Sunday evening, October 24, 2010 at 7:00 PM for a concert as part of their fall choir tour. We are in need of host families that will be responsible for housing these young men and women in their homes overnight, including breakfast and transportation to JHBC on Monday morning, October 25 to board their bus. If you are willing to be a host family, please call the church office with your name and how many you can accommodate overnight. The only requirement is that they must be housed in pairs. Thanks in advance for your willingness to serve.

Christmas Music for Sanctuary Choir — We have started rehearsing for our Christmas Musical (performance date will be announced later). We would like to invite anyone that loves to sing to join us on Wednesday evenings as we continue to learn music for the worship services, as well as, the Christmas music. We all have a wonderful time and enjoy the fellowship with each other. If you are interested, please give me a call.

Liturgical Dancers — It will soon be time for the Liturgical Dancers to begin their rehearsals for the Christmas musical. If you are interested in participating as a dancer and you are in the third grade through high school, please contact Mrs. Jan Blakely. Rehearsals will be announced at a later date.

Instrumentalist Wanted - If you have ever played an instrument or are currently playing an instrument in either of the worship services, please call the church office with your name, instrument that you play, telephone numbers (home and cell ), mailing address and a e-mail address, if you have one. I will be meeting with all of the instrumentalists in the very near future. Thanks in advance for your participation in the music ministry.

Children's Choir - Thanks to Kaye Cummings, Karen Wood, Kristan Ozee and Laurie Phillips for leading our children's choirs on Wednesday evenings. The children meet at 6:00 PM. They will soon begin preparing for their Christmas musical, too. However, we need your child to come and sing with us not only for the Christmas musical, but we need your children to help lead us as we worship. The children will be singing during our 11:00 AM worship service soon. What better way to praise the Lord than to have your child singing their little hearts out as they proclaim the gospel through music. The older children's choir will also be having a special outreach project real soon. A letter explaining the program will be sent home with each child. It will also be announced in the church bulleting, as well as, a phone call to each home. We hope your child has a hearty appetite and loves to be creative.

Deacon's Corner - by John Hall

New Church Year

Our Fellowship of Deacons held their first meeting of the new church year on September 21 and welcomed three new Deacons: Roy Lowe, James Mitchell, and Mary Upchurch. Mary and Roy have both served before and James was ordained as a Deacon in August. Also serving this year are Dallas Harper, Lynwood Jones, Tim Smith, Bob Tilley, Sam Wornom, and myself. Deacon officers for this church year are as follows:

Chair - John Hall
Vice Chair - Tim Smith
Secretary - Lynwood Jones

The regular monthly meeting for the Deacons has been changed to the first Monday of each month beginning at 6:30 P.M.

BUSINESS MEETING SCHEDULE

Two years ago, JHBC voted to change our business meeting schedule from the first Sunday evening of each month to meeting four times per year on the first Sunday evening of each quarter. Conducting only four regular business meetings per year has caused some difficulties. The frequency of special Sunday morning business meetings has increased because issues arise that must be voted on before the regular quarterly meeting. Judging from the number of church members who leave when the visitors are dismissed, special Sunday business meetings following the worship service are not very popular. Attendance has also decreased at the quarterly business meetings with one meeting failing to have a quorum present in order to conduct business.

In order to improve participation in our regular church business meetings, the Deacons will present the following recommendation at the October 3 quarterly business meeting:

The Deacons recommend that Jonesboro Heights Baptist Church conduct an annual business meeting on a Sunday evening in July and five [5] bimonthly meetings with meeting dates to be determined by the Deacons. The annual business meeting will be conducted following a covered dish supper. The purpose of the annual meeting is to conduct regular business and to vote on the following major business items:

Annual Church Budget
Election of Deacons
Nominating Committee Report

Church business meetings are important to the ministry and fellowship of our church and your participation is vitally needed. An informal time will precede each business meeting to allow members to ask questions, make comments, and identify issues and concerns that we need to discuss.

I also deeply appreciate the expressions of affirmation surrounding the fifth anniversary of our service with you here at JHBC. The many kind cards and comments were a blessing and an encouragement.

A Word of Thanks to Those Who Serve

To Deacons—who answer our church’s call to serve,
who minister to the needs of those in their charge,
whose cards, calls, and visits lighten loads and brighten days,
who pray and plan for kingdom work in kingdom ways —
we say, “Thank you.”

To Sunday School and Discipleship workers—who teach God’s word, who pray and study and seek the Lord,
who teach others by word and example and deed,
and lead them to minister to those in need—
we say, “Thank you.”

To committee members who work and lead,
and others whose tireless efforts and sacrificial deeds,
enable our church to worship, witness, and minister to needs,
and help disciples grow as disciples indeed—
we say, “Thank you.”

May God’s richest blessings be on you as you serve.
May His Spirit empower you as you serve the Lord.
May He use your work and witness to accomplish his own.
And when you finish your course and your race is won,
May you hear Him say, “Good and faithful servant, well done!”
