FBC Cherokee's Calf Fry is one of the largest men's events in the state. It will be held on March 12th, 2019 at the Alfalfa County Fairgrounds. The Calf Fry has been going strong for over 30 years. The purpose of the Calf Fry is to provide a place for men and boys to come and enjoy great food and fellowship while also hearing the good news about Jesus Christ. Each year over 300 men and boys attend.

PRAYER REQUEST

Please pray for our partner church in Kansas City (Life Connection Church):

- That the Lord would open the door for them to begin meeting this spring in Gladestone Elementary, or another location in the heart of the community they're seeking to reach
- That members of Life Connection would be bold in connecting with people in their community
- That the CSBA Mission Team going to KC in March would be used to help Life Connection reach many new people for Christ

Update on Elisha House

Thank you to those who've donated to help get Elisha House ready. Much of the work is done, but we've still got a ways to go before we can open for ministry. Please pray for Matthew and Jaimie Bearden, members of Calvary BC Enid, who are helping finish up the remodeling and get the house ready. We will be scheduling a work day later this spring to clear some of the debris behind the house and rebuild the drainage to the street.

- Chisholm Trail Cowboy Church Pastor Terry O'Toole has returned to Sherman, Texas and ask prayer for Interim Pastor Bill Smith during the transition period and as they search for a new pastor
- Newest Deacon: GRBC ordained Zach Moneypenny as deacon Sunday, Jan 6
- Laundry Love: This ministry of FBC-Enid is touching lives weekly with Christ's love at a local laundromat. Members of FBC-Enid provide quarters for washers/dryers and visit with people doing their laundry.
- Open Door Church: Has added a couple of part-time staff—Justin Romaine as Associate and Adam Weatherford as Worship Leader
- Bethlehem Baptist collected 309 Operation Christmas Child boxes and 3,100 from our area churches before Christmas
- FBC Cherokee had a Senior Adult Revival this past spring
- Ames BC set up a big Christmas tree in the middle of Ames and had a special lighting ceremony
