MMO Helps Associations

When you give to the Missouri Missions Offering, 10 percent comes back to your association to support missions. Here's what several associations are doing with their churches' MMO gifts:

New Life

Clay-Platte

Kansas City

Osage River

Spring Rive

Shoal Creek

Ozark Prairie

St. Joseph Baptist Association

is sending a youth mission team to South Dakota to assist with a new church plant, and is updating the association's block party trailer.

Concord Baptist

Association has funded a summer missionary for its affiliated churches

Lamine Baptist Association

has equipped its new disaster relief team and trailer: assists local churches with mission trips, backyard Bible clubs, and block parties; and provides support for camps for children and youth.

Fellowship Baptist Association

has partnered with a Texas church to provide food to migrant workers; engaged in a mission project in Missouri; and sends volunteers to evangelize at the Missouri State Fair.

■ Mid-Lakes Baptist Association

is building dormitories at a Baptist camp in Louisiana; sending a team to Michigan to install a new roof and assist with backyard Bible clubs; and deploying disaster-relief teams.

North Grand River Baptist Association

Harrison

North Grand River

provides churches with discipleship-leader kits; hosts a luncheon for a pastor's conference on prayer; and offers scholarships that defray travel expenses for pastors attending the Great Commission Conference.

■ Linn-Livingston Baptist Association

Baptist Association

supports evangelism

ministries at the county fair.

Cape

Missouri State Fair

and the association's

Mineral Area

St Françoios

Cane Creek Stoddard

sends mission teams to Nicaragua and South Asia; supports a church plant in Missouri; and is sending at least one team on a partnership mission trip to Wisconsin.

Grove

Mt. Salem Wyaconda

Grand

Phelps

Texas

South Central

Dent

Eleven

Lake of the

Ozarks

Bethel

Twin Rivers

Thousand Hills

Linn-Livingston

Harmony

Dallas

Salt River Bethel Baptist

Association sends out disaster-relief equipment like pallet jacks for construction teams and buys step ladders and

■ Thousand Hills

Baptist Association

ministers at the Missouri

State Fair and financially attending summer camp

supports young people

at Grand Oaks

Baptist Assembly.

mission teams.

Mid-Missouri Baptist Association has established the "Shepherd's Basket" ministry, which provides food and other essentials to about 70 families.

Cape Girardeau Baptist Association has produced a book, Why Not Me?, which challenges men to consider serving as bi-vocational pastors.

■ Pulaski Baptist Association

Greene

Tri-County

replaced the ministry assistant's computer, which crashed just before the arrival of MMO funds. The computer is used to track associational finances, including those supporting children's and youth summer camps.

Wright

Douglas

Shoal Creek Baptist Association

helps one of its churches engage numerous people groups; and leads an associational mission trip.

South Central Baptist Association

helps send volunteers on mission trips to such places as South Africa. Chile, and Atlanta.

Cane Creek Stoddard Baptist Association

helps a multi-ethnic church in Wisconsin engage in cross-cultural ministries.