

How to Deal With the Enemy

Psalm 119:113-120

The background of the slide features a sunset sky with a gradient from deep red at the bottom to a lighter purple at the top. In the foreground, three black crosses are silhouetted against the sky, positioned in the lower right quadrant. The crosses are of varying heights and are slightly blurred, giving a sense of depth and solemnity.

Assurance #1

God Protects

His People

Psalm 119:113-115

I hate double-minded men, but I love
Your law. You are my refuge and my shield; I have put my hope in Your word.
Away from me, you evildoers; that I may keep the commands of my God!

Assurance #2

God Upholds
The Obedient

Psalm 119:116-117

Sustain me according to Your promise, and I will live; do not let my hopes be dashed. Uphold me, and I will be delivered; I will always have regard for Your decrees.

Assurance #3

God Rejects

The Wicked

Psalm 119:118-119

You reject all who stray from Your decrees, for their deceitfulness is in vain. All the wicked of the earth You discard like dross; therefore I love Your statutes.

Assurance #4

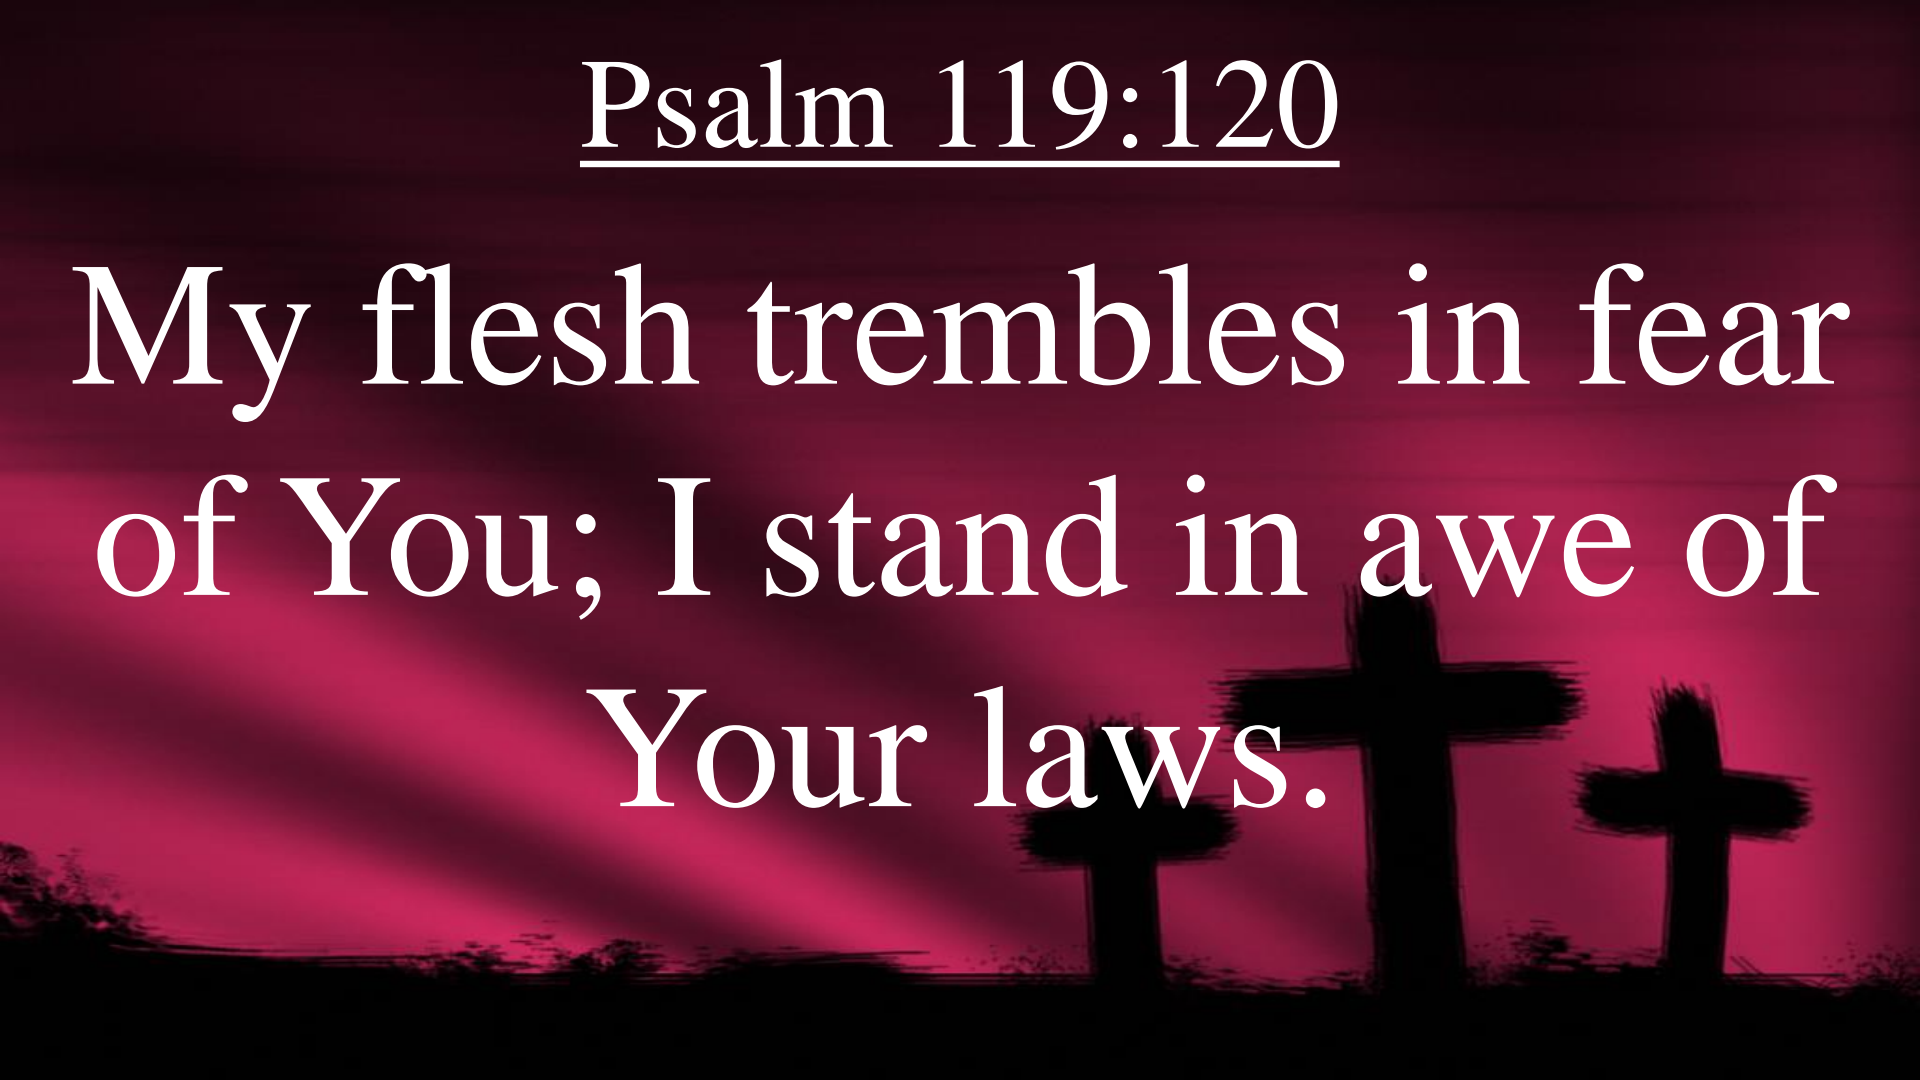

God Alone

Should Be Feared

Psalm 119:120

My flesh trembles in fear of You; I stand in awe of Your laws.

The background of the image is a sunset or sunrise sky with a gradient of red and purple. In the foreground, there are three black silhouettes of crosses of varying heights, standing on a dark, flat ground. The text is overlaid on the sky in a white, serif font.
