Interim Director of Missions

Greetings In The Matchless Name Of Jesus,

It has been my privilege to serve the Bowen Association for the previous six months.

Thank you to the DOM Search Committee for your work in bringing this search to an end. In a special, called meeting on February 18th, the Executive Committee presented Rev. Tim Vanlandingham, Pastor of Pavo First Baptist Church, as their candidate of choice to fill the position of Director of Missions for the Bowen Association.

Bro. Tim was approved by the Executive Committee and will begin his new ministry on March 15th. I personally believe that the Search Committee made a great choice in calling Bro. Tim to the Bowen Association. I’ve known him and his wife Brenda for around 22 years, having served with them in the Valdosta Baptist Association as well as the Colquitt Baptist Association. God has found them both faithful in their service to His Kingdom.

Thank you to my awesome wife, Terri, for her support and understanding during this busy time as Interim; to Faceville Baptist Church for allowing me to serve the association with full support; and I can’t say enough about the Bowen Baptist Ministry Assistant, Mary Anna Chapman, who is second to none! Our association is blessed to have her! We’ve worked together and learned together, and what a pleasure it has been. She might think I’m going to stop aggravating her now, but how wrong she is!!

Please be in prayer for Bro. Tim and Brenda as they aim only to please and lift the name of Jesus. Every one of the pastor’s in this association looks forward to many years of service with them.

Thanks and God Bless,
Dr. Ernie Jones,
Faceville Baptist Church

ARNALDO
What a mighty God we serve
What a mighty God we serve
Angels bow before Him
Heaven and earth adore Him
What a mighty God we serve.

Today as I’m writing this, it’s Valentine’s Day. What better day than today to serve Him.

Yes, I know we can and should serve Him every day.
Usually those that express their disapproval to celebrating Valentine’s Day do so because they really have forgotten what love is.

When you know Jesus as your Savior, you want to express your love for Him every day and in everything you do.

Serve Him today with love for Him. Serve your fellow man as He has commanded us to do.

With much love for Him and you,
Arnaldo Gonzalez

Annie Armstrong Easter Offering
Week of Prayer for North American Missions
March 1-8 2020

Jesus’ followers are told to live as lights shining on a stand, to give light to those around us. Yet, we often hide our lights under bowls. Some of us feel inadequate to give testimony to who Jesus is. Others fear rejection by those to whom we speak. And others don’t speak simply because they do not understand the life and death urgency that should compel us to share.

This week (month) we will walk with church planters who answered God’s call to go and to plant churches. We will hear about why they went and what it cost for them to obey. As we read their stories, may we understand our role in helping them to fulfill the Great Commission. May we see that through our prayers and support, we enable missionaries and church planters to do the most crucial thing: share the gospel.
