March 2008 Newsletter

From the Pastor

As many of you know, Pam and I recently celebrated our anniversary and my birthday was shared with so many of you at the surprise fellowship after worship. Thank you Pam! I am overwhelmed by the outpouring of love received from our "friends" in the church. I really want to thank you all for the kind words, the cards and gifts given on our special days. Your love and kindness are truly appreciated.

When you think about hospitality, there is no greater asset than the warm and welcoming friendly greeting that visitors receive when they walk in the doors of the church. Time and time again, I have heard those comments from my friends and family when they have come to worship with us.

Hospitality is at the heart of Christian values and we do it well. As followers of Jesus Christ, we are called to reflect the same welcome and acceptance we have received from God through Christ. Christ's death on the cross brought us reconciliation with God in spite of the fact that our sinful nature is what nailed Jesus to that cross.

Our hospitality needs to be more than something we do on Sunday morning and become a reflection of WHO we are the rest of the week. Our theme for this year is "Each One Bring One." As I have said before, 50% of un-churched people would attend, if they were just invited. Our hospitality begins when we interact with people even before they come through our doors.

The leadership from several area churches are sponsoring an afternoon workshop on hospitality. The date is April 6th at 3:00 and will be held at Central Presbyterian Church in New Lenox. This event is not just for elders, but for all members of the congregation. Church ministry is not the responsibility of a few, but rather of all believers.

I am inviting and challenging our church to organize a group to attend this enlightening event. It promises to be a good fellowship opportunity and will benefit our church in the long run. Won't you consider participating in this opportunity?

God's love and peace to all,
Dale

Family Night

Don't forget about family night-- March 12th- starts at 6pm since Dale is already at the church. But feel free to arrive when you are able. It's not the time you arrive that's important. It's your presence with us that makes it special. Remember it's a casual time of fun, games and fellowship. Come when you can, leave when you need to.
