

2015 Week of Prayer for Associational Missions Central New York Baptist Association

Day 1 – Pray for Ronnie Wyatt, his family, and the work of The Neighborhood Church in the city of Syracuse. Pray for physical and emotional health and strength as they minister to the homeless and the less fortunate of society.

Day 2 – Pray for Brandon Owen, his family, and the work of Missio University Church as they develop missional communities in the various neighborhoods in the University area of Syracuse. Pray for direction and for leadership as they attempt to bring the gospel to an internationally diverse population in their area.

Day 3 – Pray for Jon Speed, his family, and the work of Christ is King Church on the south side of Syracuse. Pray for the success of the used bookstore being operated by Jon and Kim to provide family income and a space for the church to meet. Pray for evangelistic effectiveness as they share the gospel in a variety of ways.

Day 4 – Pray for Mike Mazzye, his family, and the work of Renovation Church in North Syracuse. Pray that their new location in an old church building they renovated will give them stability and credibility as they seek to develop the property and reach into the surrounding neighborhood with the gospel.

Day 5 – Pray for Tim Mathis, his family, and the possible church plant in Westmoreland, NY. Pray for the success of the child care business they operate, which is helping them meet and build relationships with people in the area. Pray for a son-in-law, Nathan Hepler, who is moving to Westmoreland to help with the establishment of the new church.

Day 6 – Pray for John Bordeau, his family, and the possible new church start in Candor, NY area. John is applying to become a church planter through NAMB and is planning a small group based model church plant. A CNYBA Project Team is already meeting. Pray for direction and successful strategy as this new work launches.

Day 7 – Pray for Ed Hart, our CNYBA Director of Missions as he launches a Bible study called Open Bible Fellowship in Catatonk, NY, the rural area in which he lives. God has already provided space in an auction house. Pray that God will draw people to Himself through this Bible study.

Day 8 – Pray for Stephen Thapa Mangar, his family, and the new Nepali work he is starting in Syracuse. Pray that God will use him and his sponsoring pastor, Bhim Biswa, to reach the Nepali population in Syracuse.

- The 2015 Knapton Associational Mission Offering, associated with the Week of Prayer for Associational missions, will go to Baptist Global Response (the SBC international humanitarian relief organization) and will be designated for disaster relief to the people of Nepal.
