

OVERVIEW OF

General

Central New York Baptist Association is an association of Baptist Churches affiliated with the Baptist Convention of New York and the Southern Baptist Convention.

Geography

The Central New York Baptist Association territory is a 12,000+ square mile area (larger than 8 U.S. states) of central New York state stretching from Tioga County on the Pennsylvania border north to Wayne County on Lake Ontario, east to Herkimer County and the southwest corner of Adirondack Park, and south to Delaware County and the northwest corner of Catskill Park.

In addition to Tioga, Wayne, Herkimer, and Delaware - Broome, Cayuga, Chemung, Chenango, Cortland, Madison, Oneida, Onondaga, Oswego, Otsego, and Tompkins Counties are included in the CNYBA territory.

Population

The approximately 1.76 million population (larger than 10 U.S. states) of Central New York Baptist Association territory includes three main population centers – namely Binghamton in the south, Syracuse in the north, and Utica-Rome in the northeast.

Number of Churches

There are 47 Southern Baptist congregations affiliated with Central New York Baptist Association – 42 constituted churches and 3 mission congregations.

Structure

The associational structure is task oriented, rather than program driven. Three teams (one for each priority area) carry out the work of the association. These priority areas are Church Strengthening, Church Planting, and Cooperative Ministry.

Opportunity

Central New York Baptist Association offers ample opportunity for both partners and/or participants to join us in the awesome task of reaching this area for the Lord.
