

European Data Privacy Statement

Introduction

Myriad Genetics, Inc., 320 Wakara Way, Salt Lake City UT 84108, U.S.A., and its affiliated companies in the United States and Europe, including Myriad International GmbH and Myriad Genetics GmbH, (collectively referred to herein as “Myriad”), are committed to adhering to applicable data protection laws. Myriad recognizes and respects the privacy rights of individuals with regard to their personal data. If you are from the European Economic Area (EEA), this Data Privacy Statement will explain Myriad’s legal basis for collecting and using your Personal Data and the specific context in which we collect it.

Legal Basis for Processing Personal Data under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

Myriad applies the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) EU 2016/679 to all Personal Data we control or process on behalf of others. Myriad may process your Personal Data because:

- We need to perform a contract with you.
- To provide information or services you requested.
- You have given us your consent to process your Personal Data for the respective purposes.
- To comply with our legal obligations.

In addition, we may process your Personal Data on the basis of the legitimate interest of Myriad so long as it does not override your individual interests, rights or freedoms.

Personal Data of Patients

Myriad may collect Personal Data of patients in the course of providing our clinical laboratory testing and related services, including but not limited to, patient name, address, other contact information, medical history and records, and health insurance information. Myriad may process this Personal Data for the following purposes: providing clinical laboratory services, including molecular diagnostic test services; creating anonymized analyses of biomarker and cancer type data for publication and internal use; and providing customer service.

Personal Data of Employees

Myriad collects Personal Data of our employees in the course of their employment with us, including but not limited to, the employee’s name, address, other contact information, and job title and salary information. Myriad may process this Personal Data for general HR administrative functions, including hiring, performance assessment, promotion, and salary and benefits determinations.

Personal Data of Third Party Service Providers and Consultants

Myriad may collect Personal Data of individuals who provide services on our behalf, including but not limited to, name, biographical information, address, and other contact information. Myriad may process this Personal Data for purposes of carrying out the service agreements it has with these individuals or their employers.

GDPR Transfer of Data

Myriad's European affiliates, with offices in the EEA, store and transfer data, including Personal Data, to the United States and process it there.

The level of data protection in the United States is considered not to be the same as in the EEA according to the absence of a respective adequacy decision of the EU Commission. Myriad ensures that such transfers are carried out in compliance with the applicable data protection laws and regulations. Any transfers to third countries outside the EEA are secured through appropriate contractual guarantees such as the EU Commission's Standard Contractual Clauses for transfers to the United States where applicable. You may request and receive a copy of such documents from us.

Your Data Protection Rights under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

If you are a resident of the EEA, you have certain data protection rights. Myriad aims to take reasonable steps to allow you to correct, amend, delete or limit the Processing of your Personal Data.

If you wish to be informed about what Personal Data we hold about you and if you want it to be removed from our systems, please contact us.

Under the GDPR, you have the following data protection rights:

- Right of access
You have the right to obtain information as to whether we process your Personal Data and to receive a copy of your Personal Data retained by us as a Controller. In addition, you have the right to obtain certain information how and why we process your Personal Data.
